ANNUAL STAFF

The Senior Echoes' Staff of "41", like almost all other Annual staffs, lacked experience in editing, but we have felt it an honor to be able to work on this yearbook, and as representatives of the class, to try to preserve in print and in pictures our happy life at Tecumseh High School. We have tried to use our own originality to a certain extent, and we are glad that we are able to make the book ten pages longer than usual.

The members of the staff and of the class feel that great credit should be given to our adviser, Mrs. Laidlaw, and to the different teachers and students whose names do not appear in print, but who had a great deal to do with the publishing of this Annual.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

WILLIAM LENARDSON

Parents, teachers, and classmates:

There are times in our lives when it is natural for us to pause and take stock of ourselves—times when we review the past for a moment before going on to the future. Such a time is Commencement.

As we look back over these past four years we realize to what extent we have improved. We feel that we have developed mentally, physically, socially, and in many other ways. We did not all receive A's or even B's; in fact, some of us were very lucky to get D's. But through these years of high school we have developed self-confidence, which is an important step to success. We are not so confident that we write our diaries up a week ahead of time, but we do have enough courage, so that we are willing to follow up the desires and abilities which we have uncovered during the past four years, even though the odds against us are many. Also, along with many other things, we have learned that money is not the only mark of success, and we have come to realize that "the expression you wear on your face is far more important than the clothes you wear on your back."

Parents and teachers, you have helped to teach us these things, and tonight we thank you. You have done more than your share, and now it is up to us.

Classmates, the experiences and friendships which we have shared together will always be remembered. For your co-operation and loyalty I wish to thank you. I consider it a great honor to have been your president.

Let us look confidently towards the future; and although none of us may ever reach great fame or fortune, may we each live a happy and a useful life.

CLASS POEM

MARGRETT CADMUS

This is our night, tonight,
And there are people here tonight
Who envy us;
For we are young and proud,
With our future just ahead.
There it stands, the structure
Built of steel and strong;
The structure each of us
Carefully created.

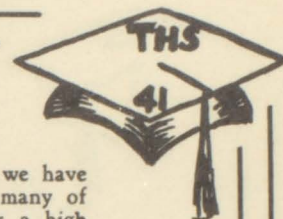

We do not remember now
That others have been proud,
Just as we.
We have forgotten just now
Those who helped us
To make the blocks, and build
It from the first foundation.
But we will remember later,
When we see

Others young and eager, stand
Here as we do now, tonight,
Facing the future.
As in free young pride, they see
Their first goal achieved.
We'll remember then
And feel that exultant thrill
With them, because we'll know
And share it with them.

Tecumseh High, be proud with us
In our night, be gay and young
With us;
For tomorrow we'll be gone
Into a new and different world,
To begin completing
The strong steel skeleton before us,
Already clothed in beauty,
And made a building by our dreams.

VALEDICTORY

CAMILLA SATTERTHWAITE

Tonight we are gathered as a class probably for the last time. For four years we have been having frequent meetings, both social and business. At our first class meeting many of us were strangers. We hadn't chosen each other for classmates, but the desire for a high school education, plus our similarity in age and in schooling, had brought us together. Since it is and always has been natural for people to band together for companionship and self-expression, it is only fitting and proper that class organizations should be formed in schools; it is a custom for which we, among many others, are very thankful. Our group was designated as "The Class of 1941." There are only about half of us here tonight who met in that first ninth grade class meeting. However, we have been fortunate in having a few members join our ranks since that time. Shoulder to shoulder we have shared many experiences of fun and of labor. We have grown fond of each other and have come to feel more and more like one body "Marching Along Together", small as it is. Now that June 1941 has finally arrived, we must separate. That is the painful part of the graduation to which we have been looking forward for so long.

On the other hand, we are rather anxious to try our own wings. Up to this time we have been guided and helped in every phase of our lives. Now we must be our own guides, make our own decisions, and check our work ourselves. Because of our sound training here in school, we are confident that we can do these things and solve our problems. To you, parents and teachers and other friends, we are sincerely thankful for this help and guidance, just as all other graduating classes have been, and all the classes to come will be. And to all you citizens of Tecumseh we express our deepest gratitude for the unfailing support given us in our numerous and various activities. It is a strange but enduring truth that we humans do not appreciate the full value of real opportunities until those opportunities are lost. We, too, have come to realize, as we pause to look back over the years spent in these halls of learning and fun, that the advantages offered here were worth far more to us than they seemed to be at the time.

However, we cannot pause for long to look back, because our eyes are now focused toward the future. And besides, graduation doesn't mean the end of class and school spirit, for this spirit of loyalty, comradeship, and co-operation, has become an integral part of our characters—as much a part of us as the high school memories we carry with us into the future. It is now our duty to apply this spirit to the larger groups of which we will become a part—especially to that very large group known as the people of the United States, to whom we have chosen to dedicate our lives. We took a very long step when we agreed that our motto through life should be service to our country, or fellowmen. And when we chose it, we were not thinking of helping our country to be imperialistic, but rather a stronger, more united democracy. In order to do our part in making our nation more united, we, the youth of today, especially the youth of America, must enter the work of the world courageously, and with the idea of putting down class hatred. If we do not, we will be passing up the greatest opportunity and challenge ever offered to mankind. In order to do our part to make our nation strong, we ourselves must be of strong and fine characters. Naturally a nation cannot be any stronger than the individuals who compose it. There are three habits which each one of us should form that will help us become the fully-developed, worthwhile people our nation needs.

FIRST: The habit of doing our own thinking and of keeping that thinking on a high plane, always taking an attitude of hope and faith in God, our Father.

SECOND: The habit of working hard at whatever job we have, keeping in mind that, no matter how insignificant our job may seem, it is of definite value to people, and that we should be missed if we did not do it.

THIRD: The habit of being cheerful and forgiving, not allowing our personal ambitions to wealth or fame or position to get ahead of our desire to be of service to our fellow citizens, and of always being aware that our life here is only a testing ground to determine whether we are worthy of a larger life hereafter.

In closing I shall wish you more than health, wealth, and happiness. I wish that we may do our very best, in whatever field we find ourselves, to think courageously, to work efficiently, and to create joy—in other words, to put into life and to get from life the greatest amount of living possible.

SALUTATORY

BERTHA MAE KRING

To our parents, to our teachers, and to all of our friends that are here with us tonight, we, the class of '41, wish to extend our heartiest welcome. To you who have been working side by side with us during the past few years, and who have extended many a helping hand to us while we were getting our eyes open, so to speak, to the workings of the world around us; to you who have been interested enough in us to give us of your time and effort—it is to you that we extend our thanks and with whom we wish to share the glory of this night—this night which represents to us the goal that we have been striving for during this past preparatory stage of our life.

When we were very young, we were dependent upon our parents for the essentials of life—food, clothing, and shelter. Then, as we grew older and started to grasp at the power of thought and reason, we needed a new kind of help. This help was given to us by our parents and teachers, who tried to guide our mental development in the right direction and impress upon our minds the proper ideas and ideals. Just as it had been the aim of their parents to do for them and just as we shall try to do for our children, so they were striving to give us the fundamental knowledge which we would need to enable us to get the best out of life and to prevent the worst. They were trying to prepare us for the days when we would no longer be so dependent on their guidance and judgment, but would be able to form wisely and justly our own opinions and solve our own problems. They had the foresight which we lacked, and knew, far better than we, the value of an education in this day and age, to enable us to take a wise and active part in the society and government of our country—our democracy of which we are all proud and thankful to be a part, and which we cherish especially because it is one of the few remaining in the world. Our motto, "Let our object be our country", expresses one of the most noble and worthwhile goals that we, the youth of today, could ever hope to strive for. And so, to prepare us to work for and perhaps accomplish these things that have been mentioned, we have first tried, with the help of our parents and teachers, to get that all necessary and important factor to fit ourselves for these tasks—an education!

Now the time has come when we have taken most of the help which we should and can be given—the time when society places its stamp of approval on what we have acquired during this past period, and when we look forward to taking an active place in that society, as a result of this achievement. It is on this occasion when our mutual dreams become a reality that we wish all of our friends to be with us and to know that we are grateful for their help. Again we say welcome, and may we hereafter prove worthy of your concern.

CLASS HISTORY

JEAN OSBURN, PEGGY CLARK

"Let Our Object Be Our Country"

On a bright September morning in 1937, fifty-six excited Freshmen looked forward to the coming school year. We selected for our President the capable leader, Bill Lenardson; for Vice-President, Hugh DesErmia; for Secretary, Ruth Brainard; and Treasurer, Frances Glenn. We were very proud to send a representative to the Student Council—Camilla Satterthwaite. Mrs. Service was chosen as our adviser. Among the many outstanding events of the school year were our class parties, our concession at the Carnival, and our assembly program.

Forty-five members returned from summer vacation to start our Sophomore year. Again Bill Lenardson was elected as President. The Vice-President that we chose was Calvin Damon; Secretary, Ernest Oliver; Treasurer, Florence Wilson; and Student Council Representative, George Rockwood. Our class adviser again was Mrs. Service. Our Sophomore assembly program was chosen as the best one of the year, and we were honored by being asked to give it at Lincoln High in Ypsilanti. One of the most outstanding of several class parties was the picnic and wiener roast enjoyed at Lenardson's farm.

Our Junior year started out with the same forty-five Sophomores of the preceding year. By that time we realized that Bill Lenardson was a born leader, and we again elected him class President. Our Vice-President that year was Ernest Van Valkenburg; Secretary, Dorothy Cole; Treasurer, Bertha Mae Kring; Student Council Representative, Camilla Satterthwaite; and our adviser, Mr. Johnson. We completed several important tasks that year. Among the most outstanding were our J-Hop, the Carnival, the All-High banquet, which we hope will become an annual event at Tecumseh High School, our Junior Play, "Headed for Eden," and the Junior-Senior Reception. Our Junior year was greatly saddened, however, in the early spring, by the death of one of our classmates, Donald Sloan.

In September 1940 thirty-one members assembled as Seniors. For this, our final year, the class officers were: President, Bill Lenardson; Vice-President, Ernest Oliver; Secretary-Treasurer, Bertha Mae Kring; and Student Council Representative, Ruth Brainard. Mr. Johnson continued as class adviser. We were very proud this year to have Camilla Satterthwaite, a member of our class, elected by the student body as President of the Student Council. During our last year we were kept very busy with class parties, the Senior Play, "One Wild Night," decorations for the Christmas Party, our Assembly Program, the Annual, and our second All-High Banquet.

A jolly time was had by all on the Great Lakes excursion, to which we had looked forward all year. Baccalaureate, Class Night, and Commencement in June wound up gloriously our four happy years at Tecumseh High School.

Class Song

IDA WOODCOX

Marching along together—
Willing to accept life's task;
Marching along together,
Opportunity we ask.
Come what may, we'll face it—
Do it with all our will.
We've had the training,
We've had the work;
We'll never fail,
We'll never shirk,
We'll make you proud,
We'll make you glad
For all the trouble
With us you've had—
Marching along together—
So cheer the class of '41

We started the year off with a bang by having a party at Iron Creek. We left immediately after school and hiked for about two hours. After dinner we played games until dark, and then sat around the campfire talking until it was time to go home.

On October twentieth we had a scavenger hunt. Afterwards we all went back to school and danced to the music of Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw, and all the rest—via phonograph records.

On November twenty-ninth we sponsored a P.T.A. dance. During intermission the play "The Light-House Keeper's Daughter" was given by the actors (?) of our class.

In January we divided the class into two teams for a "dues drive." When it was over the losers entertained the winning team.

Of course one of the highspots of the year came when the Junior Class asked us to serve at the Junior-Senior Reception in May.

Freshmen Class

Adviser—Mr. Parsons

Counselors—Mr. Raizk, Mrs. Bleil, and Miss Humphrey

President—Mary Lou Carlson

Vice-President—William Aebersold

Secretary-Treasurer—Patricia Hickey

The Freshman Class was exceptionally large this year, there being eighty-two members. The group was not too large, however, to thoroughly enjoy several parties. There was a wiener roast held in Aebersold's woods early in the fall. The next party was an interesting scavenger hunt; and the last one was an ice-skating party at Macon.

The class has been quite industrious and very much interested in the Student Activities Award. They sold Christmas trees, conducted a very successful P.T.A. dance, and attended the basketball games in large numbers.

Many of the boys have participated in athletics, and several of them are already letter-men.

Much may yet be expected of this promising class.

EIGHTH GRADE

In the fall, Mr. Brazee, their class adviser, took the eighth graders to Blood's Bridge for an afternoon of hiking, exploring, and picnicking.

The class joined in the holiday spirit at Christmas time by going caroling and having a little party.

The eighth grade, or class of 1945 as they will prefer to be called shortly, is making the best of their last year in Junior High.

Boy

Girl

What do you see in the picture? I see a boy and a girl. The girl is not the boy's sister. The girl is making eyes at the boy. She thinks it is still Leap Year. The boy likes to have the girl make eyes at him.

Girl

Look at the girl. She is very happy. She has written the Constitution 120 times. She has stayed after school 120 times. She is happy because she can repeat the Constitution up to Article IV, Section 4. Soon she will be able to say it all. She is a good citizen.

Boys

See the two boys. They are very sad. They are sad because they are hungry. There are barbecues for lunch. The boys can smell them cooking. But they sit in the last row in the assembly room. They will be the last ones out. They are unhappy, for it will be a long time before they can eat.

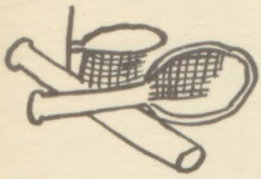

Boy

What do you see? I see a boy. See the circles under his eyes. See how his hair is all mussed up. He has been in Concentration Camp. He had to study. He suffered much in Concentration Camp.

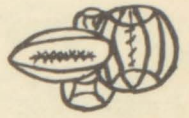

Girl

Look at the girl. See how sad she is. See how thin and hungry she looks. Once she was happy. Once she was rich. She had twenty-five cents. She bought some gum. She chewed her gum in school. Now she is poor; now she must go without Coca Cola; now she cannot go to the basketball game. That is what happens to bad boys and girls who chew gum in school.

MANAGERS—Ned Harrington and Franklin Humble.

FOOTBALL

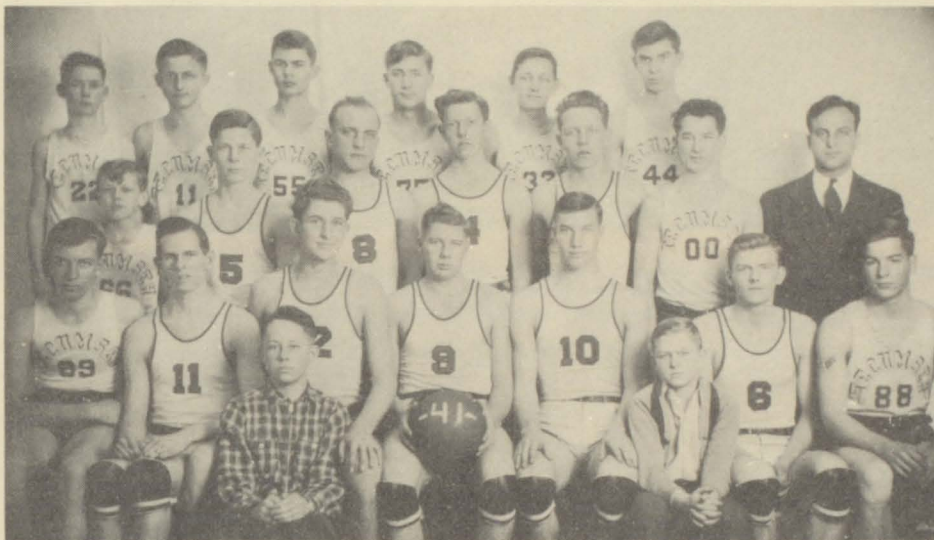

Mr. Hart, our new football coach from up Menominee way, sent out his first call for practice on September 5, 1940. A squad of young and inexperienced players answered the call. Under the circumstances, the team did as well as could be expected. The one bright spot on the schedule was upsetting a strong Clinton team by a score of 7-6.

The Indians finished the season with two victories and five losses. Although this record does not seem very impressive, the team did acquire experience. As most of the squad will return next fall, with the exception of the seniors (Bill Lenardson, Ernest Oliver, and Bob Jewell), we are looking forward to a very successful season in 1941.

BASKETBALL—Varsity

SITTING—Bob Wilson, Bill Lenardson, Bob Mohr, Max Green, Don Carlson.

MIDDLE ROW—Richard Eggleston, Bob Wilson, Marvin Rumpf, Robert Laidlaw, Donald Carlson, Jack Osburn, Coach Raizk.
SITTING—Jim Smith, Charles Spillman, Bill Lenardson, Bob Mohr, Max Green, Hugh DesErmia, Jack Brown.
MANAGERS—Franklin Humble, Ned Harrington.

BASKETBALL

Under the generalship of Coach Raizk, the Tecumseh Indians enjoyed one of their most successful seasons in recent years. They started their season with a bang by humbling Addison 29-12, and continued to pile up victories, defeating all their opponents by decisive margins, with the exception of Blissfield, which was the only team to conquer them this year.

Tecumseh finished the regular season with twelve wins and two losses, and ranked second in the Lenawee County League. Coach Raizk then entered his Indians in the district tournament at Dundee. Here they won first place and a beautiful trophy, thus qualifying for the regional tourney at Ypsilanti, where they were eliminated by Blissfield.

Our reserve team also was successful in their campaign, winning ten games and losing only three. We are looking forward to a successful season next year.

TOP ROW—Martha Jane Kempf, Virginia Dwyer, Lenore Larsen, Ruth Schneider, Jean Marie Herrick, Elva Mae Dickinson, Marda Jean Duncan.
 MIDDLE ROW—Marjorie Colson, Mary Louise Stevenson, Barbara Humble, Isabel Hamilton, Gay Larsen, Leland Kerby.
 SITTING—Gwendolyn Kring, Corleone Hunt, Mrs. Bleil, Lillard Brown, Beppy Escolme.

CHEERLEADERS' ORGANIZATION

The cheerleader's organization was started in September, following the opening of school, under the direction of Mrs. Bleil. It is open to all grades from the seventh through the twelfth. At present we have about twenty members.

Our officers for this year are as follows: President, Elva Mae Dickinson; Vice President, Ruth Schneider; Secretary-Treasurer, Marjorie Colson.

In addition to leading cheers at the games, we have conducted pep meetings and have tried to teach the student body new yells. We feel that this year has been a successful one, and we are looking forward to bigger things next year.

BASEBALL

The spring call for baseball practice brought out no less than twenty-five candidates. The weather has been unfavorable, and Coach Hart has not been able to get his squad out on the baseball diamond as yet. There are a number of promising candidates, and we are hoping for a successful season.

STANDING—Karl Schneider, Don Carlson, Mr. Johnson, Malcolm Bagshaw, Leland Kerby.

TENNIS

Tecumseh High School's tennis squad is facing a hard schedule for 1941. Matches are scheduled with University High, Roosevelt High, Sylvania, Adrian, and tentatively with Dundee. Although Tecumseh is still a member of the Lenawee County League, it is necessary to play matches with outside teams, since none of the Lenawee County League schools have tennis teams this year.

Veterans from last year's squad are Bob Wilson, George Wilson, Malcolm Bagshaw, Karl Schneider, Bob Jewell, and Jim Smith.

TRACK

Track is being revived again, after having been discontinued for several years. The squad is small and naturally inexperienced, but under the capable leadership of our track coach, Mr. Mead, we will in time again find the Indians in the thick of battle. Several dual meets have been arranged and the highlight of the season will be the all-county track meet, to be held on May 22nd at Adrian College. Here's wishing our team the greatest of success in their efforts.

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy Youth.—ECC. 12, 1

CHAPEL

The ministers, as spiritual leaders of the community, are glad to participate in the Monday morning Chapel programs. They do not consider it a duty, for—

"He who gives nothing but worthless gold
Who gives from a sense of duty;
But he who gives but a slender mite,
And gives to that which is out of sight,
That thread of the all-sustaining Beauty
Which runs through all and does all unite,—
The hand cannot clasp the whole of his alms,
The heart outstretches its eager palms,
For a god goes with it and makes it store
To the soul that was starving in darkness before."

—LOWELL.

It is a high privilege, prized by each minister, to address, several times during the school year, such a large group of the youth of our town. All the pupils and the faculty of the Central building are in attendance at Chapel.

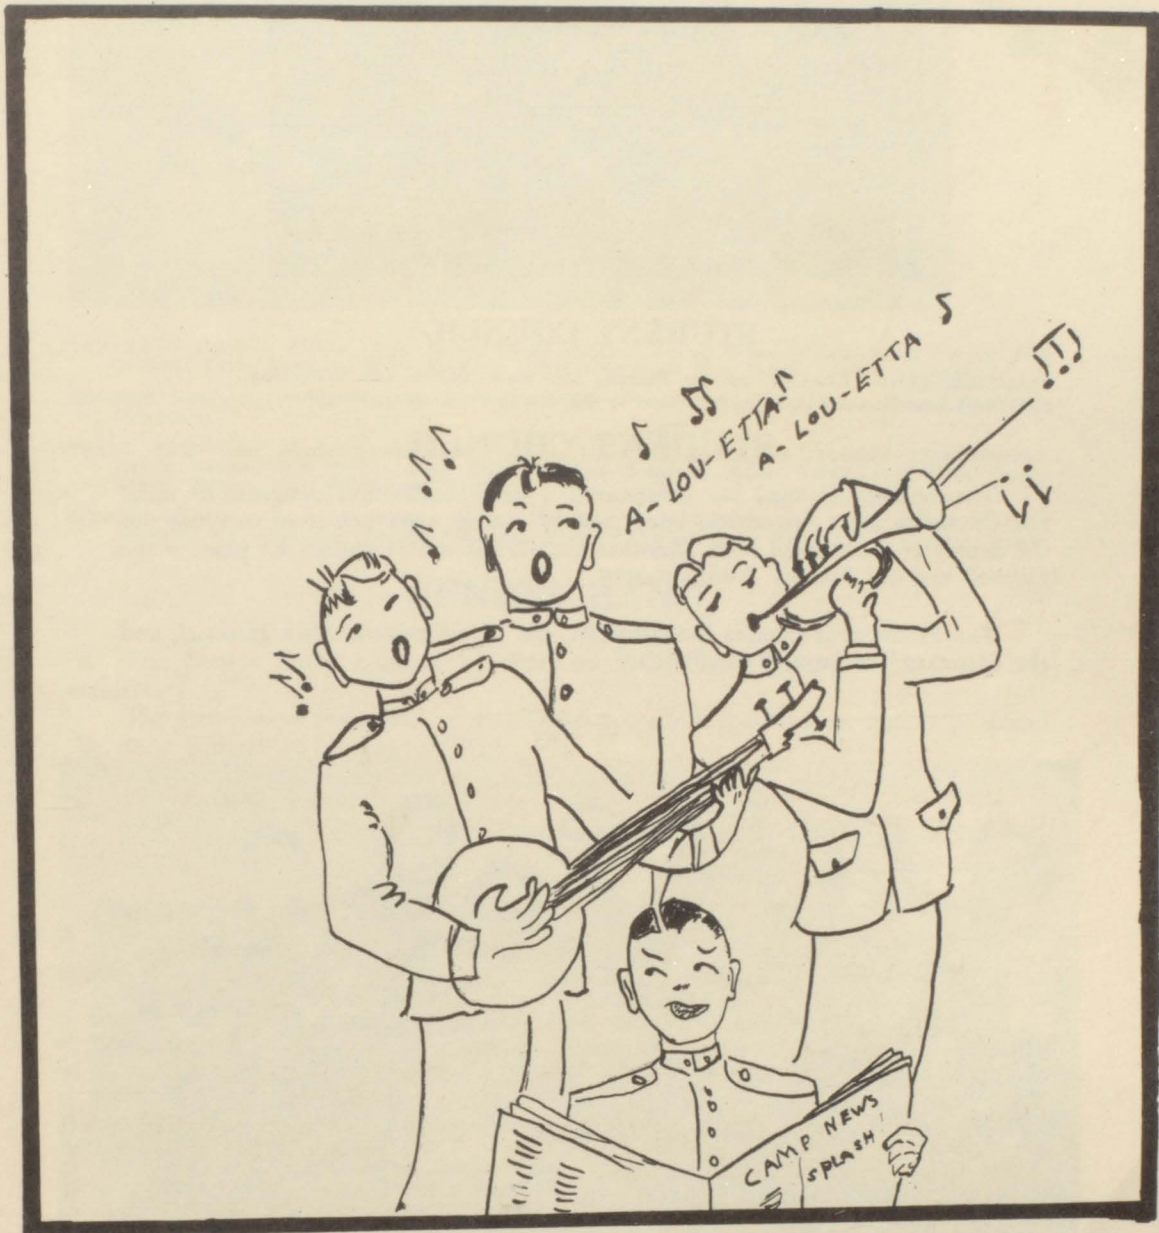

The messages are non-sectarian in nature, and their purpose is to contribute to the spiritual life of our boys and girls. We have also enjoyed several guest speakers. Miss Humphrey directs the music, which includes assembly singing and also musical numbers given by both individuals and groups from the student body.

After four years, we feel that our Chapel services are no longer in the experimental stage, and we thank the faculty, the pupils, and the clergymen who have contributed to the success of our Chapel exercises.

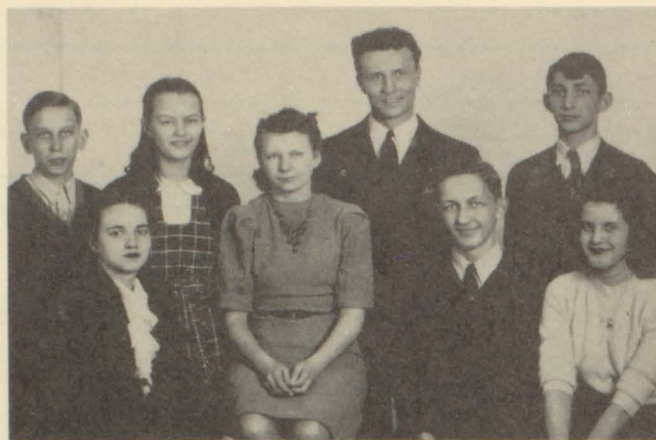

THE JOY OF LIVING

"Would you know the joy of living?
Lay all selfishness aside;
Let your motto be for others,
Let unselfishness abide.
Give the world the best that's in you,
Bury self within the deep;
Give your life for serving others,
And a blessed joy you'll reap."

—THE Y. C. COMPANION.

SENIOR PLAY

On November 27th and 28th, 1940, the Senior class, under the direction of Mr. Jon Young, presented a thrilling three-act play entitled "One Wild Night."

This play was unusual because the last act was played on practically a bare stage. The cast included: Harold Easton, Bill Lenardson, Evelyn Lindsley, Frances Glenn, Jean Osburn, Bertha Mae Kring, Camilla Satterthwaite, Hugh DesErmia, Ruth Gallaway, Robert Hamilton, Robert Jewell, Bill Mackey, James O'Neill, Ruth Brainard, Robert McKee, Betty Kruger, Ida Woodcox.

JUNIOR PLAY

The three-act mystery play entitled "Headed for Eden" was given by the class of '41 on February 27th and 28th before two large audiences. The cast of characters was as follows: Mrs. Skipworth, Ruth Johnston; Imogene, Ida Woodcox; Hank, Harold Easton; Dorothy Brill, Jean Osburn; Peggy Walters, Abbie Cowen; Gladys Herman, Evelyn Lindsley, Nancy Lane, Frances Glenn; Kate Roberts, Bertha Mae Kring; Rosina Blandish, Camilla Satterthwaite; Barry Richards, Hugh DesErmia; Minnie Peters, Ruth Gallaway; Henry Banks, Bill Lenardson; Marcella Turner, Jane Clark; Bob Roberts, Robert Hamilton; Sergeant Kelly, Robert Jewell; Ken Howard, Ernest Oliver; Benny, Ernest Van Valkenburg. One of the highlights of the play was the fine acting of Ernest Van Valkenburg in the difficult role of Benny.

ALL-HIGH BANQUET

Last year, for the first time in our school, we had an All-High Banquet. It was sponsored by the class of '41. At this banquet, awards for basketball, debate, and F.F.A. were given out. It was open to all students of the High School, to the parents of those receiving awards, and to last year's "letter" men.

This banquet was such a success that we decided to have another one this year; and on March 28th, the class of '41 again sponsored an All-High Banquet. We had an excellent dinner, followed by a very interesting program, during which basketball and cheer leaders' awards were given out. To wind up the evening, we danced to the music of Paul Johnson's orchestra.

These banquets make a small margin of profit for the class that sponsors them, but they are held primarily to give all the students a chance to be present when the awards are given out, and to provide an opportunity for all the students of both Junior and Senior High School to meet together socially. We have now had two banquets of this kind, and we hope there will be more in the future.

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION

The annual Junior-Senior Reception was given on May 10 to send off our Seniors.

The Reception was dedicated to Donald Sloan, who had passed on.

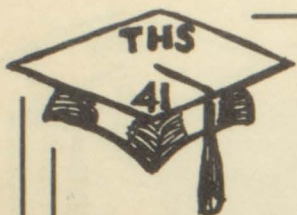

The gymnasium was beautifully decorated as a spring garden, with trellises filled with flowers. The dinner was well served by the Sophomore girls and boys. An entertaining floor show was presented. The music was furnished by Walt Schaible's orchestra.

J-HOP

The class of '41, after much effort spent in preparation, entertained at the Junior Fall Frolic on November 8. As the guests came down into the gymnasium, they found themselves in the Land of Oz. They were greeted by the old Wizard himself. Ernest Oliver, as master of ceremonies, introduced a short floor show. Music was furnished by Quentin Jervis and his Varsity Club.

MAY PARTY

The May Party was held on May 24. The decorations were the same as for the Reception. Music was furnished by George Gordon and his orchestra.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

December 20, 1940, the date all had been waiting for, finally came, for it was the night of the Christmas Party.

The decorations were cleverly worked out in blue and white. At one end of the gym was a scene representing a window with a lighted Christmas tree behind it, and Christmas trees all around the outside. At the other end, around the orchestra pit, was a row of lighted trees.

The music was furnished by Stanley Hesselbart and his orchestra.

TEACHERS' CLUB

The Teachers' Club was organized in the fall of the year with all the teachers of the district as members. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Smith, President; Miss Elliott, Vice-President; Mr. Raizk, Secretary-Treasurer.

The meetings are held the second Thursday of each month, with dinner and a program arranged by the committee in charge.
