ECHOES

The Graduating Class of 1964 Presents . . .

SENIOR

ECHOES

VOLUME XLVI
Published by the Senior Class
Tecumseh High School
JUNE 1964

Table of Contents

Now that we are leaving high school, we have completed one phase of life and are beginning another. We will go out into society and work in various fields--depending upon our interests and beliefs--using what we have learned in school. Now our memories of school are very clear and distinct, but as the years pass and memories gradually fade, we will be able to bring out our yearbooks and remember people and events. The annual will remind us of the fun we had, of the work we did, and particularly of the people who were our close friends and who shared our joys and sorrows.

Snowflake Swirl

The Senior class decorated the Christmas Dance in red and white. There was a false ceiling of streamers which met in the center with a swirl of snowflakes at the top of the gym.

F.F.A. Banquet Football Assembly

"Ring around the rosey."

"Aww, you shouldn't have."

"And we did every bit ourselves."

Sponge Dance

"Hmmm. Arsenic!"

Junior--Senior Picnic

and fro as this multitude?"
Shakespeare

*Snap*s

"Now, this is how it's done!"

"I knew your Mom's dress wouldn't fit!"

"But Coach, he was over there a minute ago."

"Hold it, Mr. Dixon'll be right over."

"The winner of the raffle is. . .Mr. Hart?"

Ban takes the worry out of. . .

"Why it's a ball—a football!"

"Don't you dare mess my hair up!"

"Fill 'er up, girls!"

"All we did was say Souey-Souey!"

I still don't see anything.

Duh. . .

Good to the last drop.

Isn't one enough?!

Grrrr!

A thing of the past.

"Now, Corky, this is our textbook."

For speedy relief-take Alka-Seltzer!

"It's stuck in my throat!"

"Hmm now, let me see. . ."

"Now listen here Grandpa!"

Stretch!

"She can't fall out, I've got her feet!"

Quemo sabe?

"The spirits say. . ."

What's this? Linda's going on a double date?

"My feet hurt!"

"He says I'm wrong, I say I'm right."

Seniors ?

"I dreamed I was. . ."

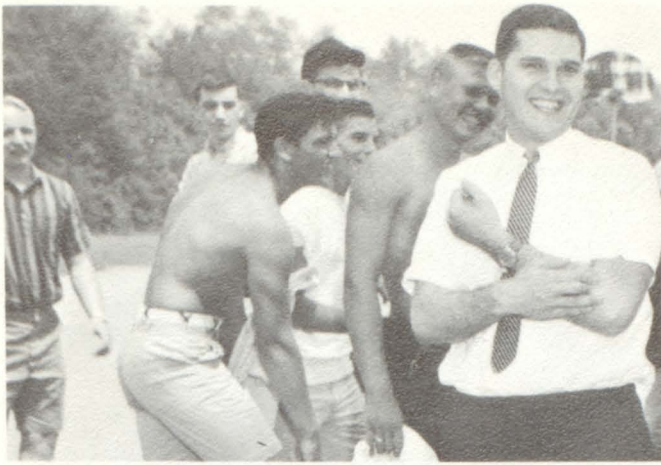

See! We have our very own Rockette!

"No! You can't see my contacts."

"We didn't burn it. . .much!"

"Who put the itching powder in the sloppy joes?"

"My job is to hold the top down!"

"And then he said he loved me!"

Seniors

At night strange things stalk the earth.

The T. V. is for looks only!

"Who squeezed the air out of the Kleenex tissues?"

"I hope she doesn't hit Mrs. Patterson."

Dan's last words, "Who greased my pole?"

"Hey Coach, what next?"

"Sing this? It's in Russian!"

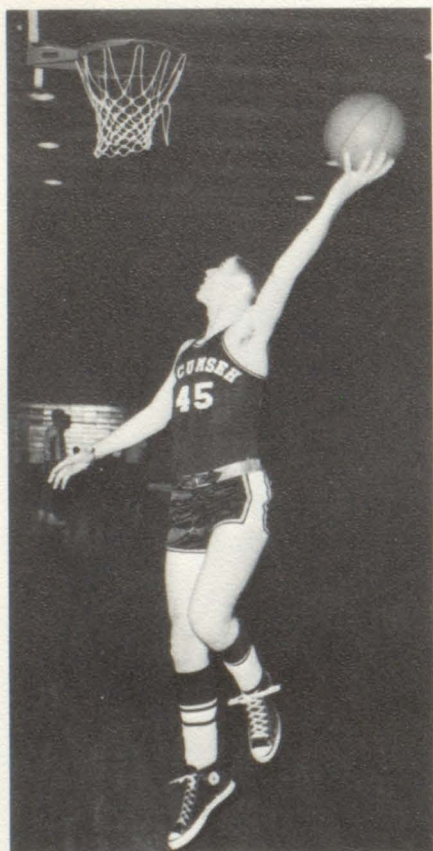

Sing along with Mr. Beattie!

"Hey there's a bug in that flower!"

"Do you think I can reach it? It's taller than I am."

"Hee-Hee! A test tomorrow!"

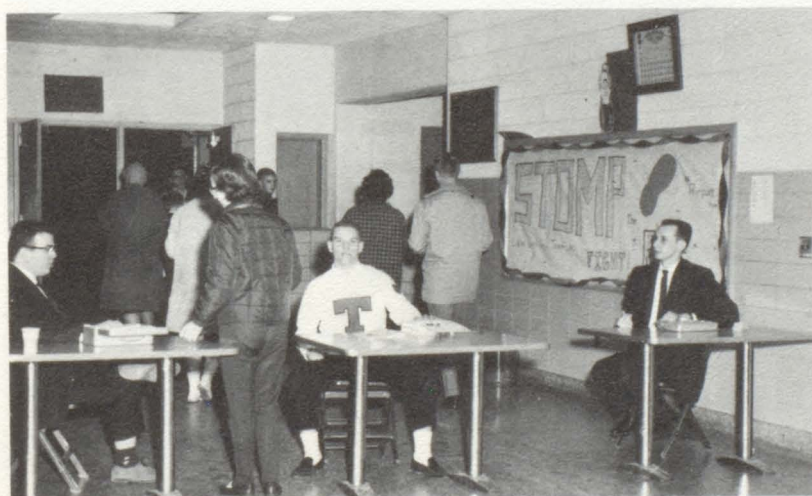

"Just call me Ishmael!"

And the band played on!

"I wonder what her name is?!"

"Don't all rush
us at once, Please!"

"What did I see in that locker?"

"Honest—I was just kidding!"

"All this correcting makes me sleepy."

WOW—What tough freshmen!

"The books just fell off the shelves!"

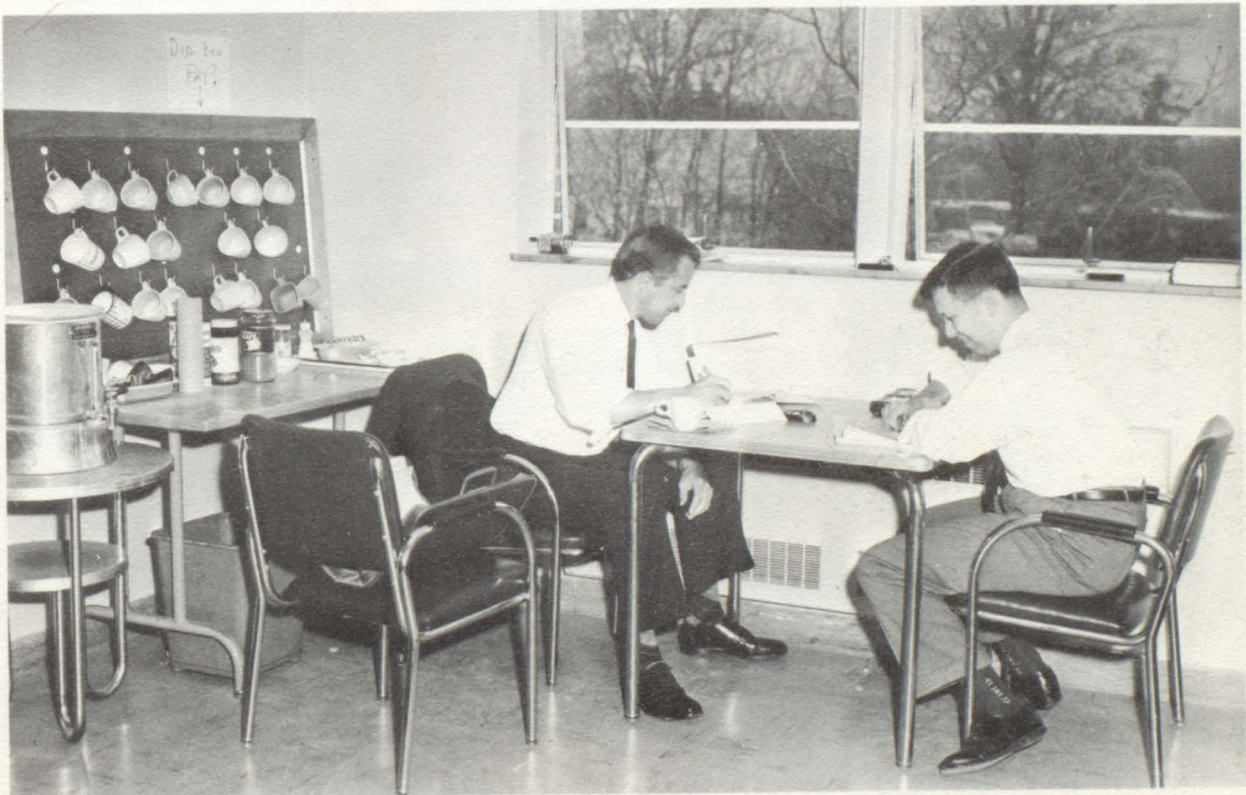

Yes dear, Two pounds of hamburger. . . .

My son. . . .WHAT?

Ho! Ho! Ho! That one's not going to make it.

"Hi, Dad! "

See no evil; hear no evil; speak no evil.

"Be quiet, here comes the warden."

"That's where I stuck my gum!"

"Do you think they'll know my eraser's made out of bubble gum?"

"I won't change your baby sister's diapers!"

"I'd never believe that!"

"Now Corky, leave that poor bug alone."

Will the real Christmas tree please step forward?

"Tremenjus!"

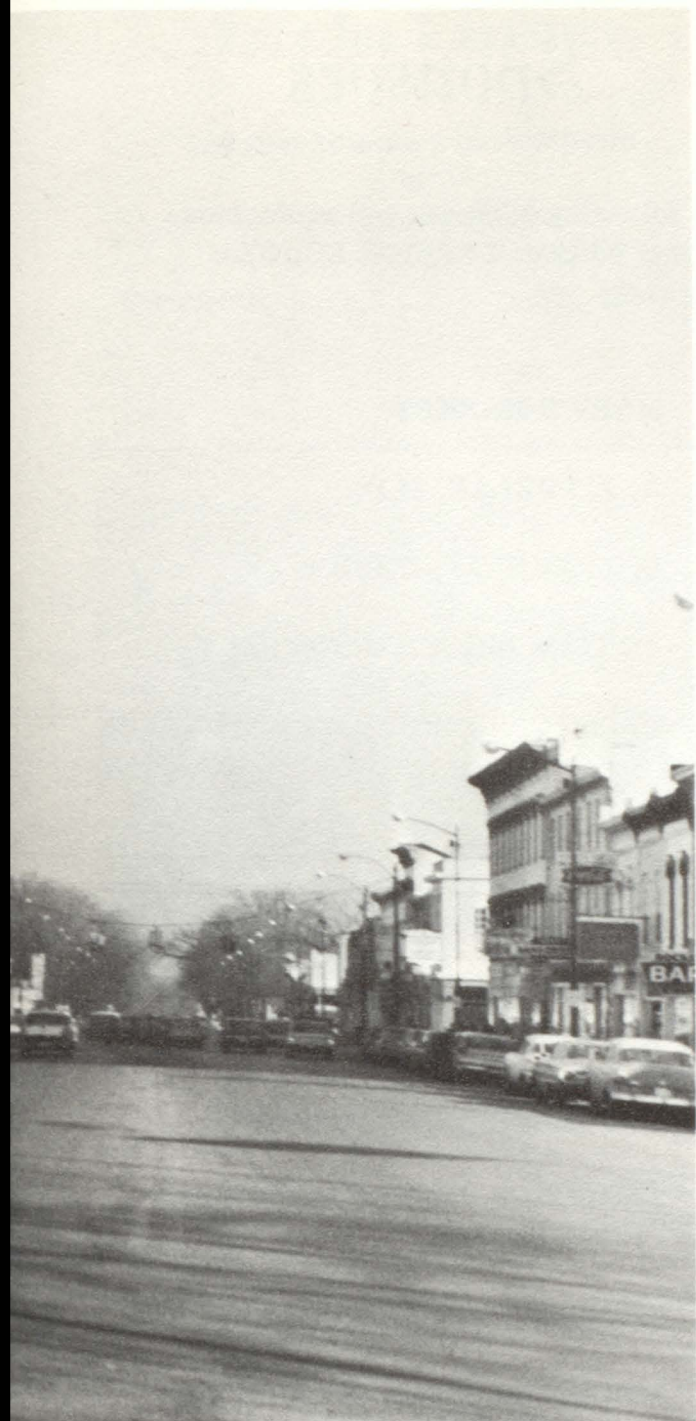

"Ah, I finally caught one!"

"They don't know we weren't even on the team."

The maxim of the (American) people is "Business as usual."

We Acknowledge :

The administration, faculty, and guidance department for aiding us in the development of our character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Mr. Bronzo for helping us adjust to our first year in high school.

Mr. Croll for his guidance during our last three high school years.

Miss Minton for her co-operation in taking the responsibility for the 1964 Annual.

With these pages we in the class of 1964 take farewell of THS, where we have spent four years—perhaps the most important years in our lives. We have come to know the school and its activities: work, athletics, clubs, and dances; and it is with mixed feelings that we leave. It is our hope that these years will enable us to get a quick start in life and provide a solid background for whatever we undertake in the future.
