

farewell
trading years of looking ahead
for moments of looking back,
i prepare to leave.

i remember the searching of eyes,
the confrontation of wills,

and the discovery that before
the acquisition of the answers
must come the realization
of the questions

and i recall the touching of hands,
the blush of love
(like a painted flower on a child's cheek).

sandcastles of dreams
and carnival parades of futures
fill the landscapes
within my mind

(the times: we laughed together
in gardens of delight
unashamed
and cried
in the absence of a rose)

on mental stages,
the actors still share their
victories
with me

in uncontrolled jubillation

still suffer their defeats
with me

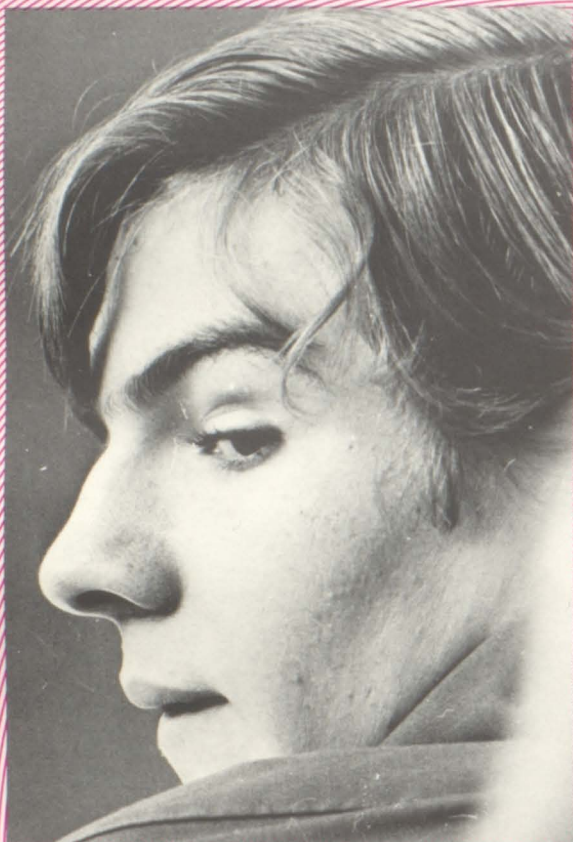

we sang our blues
together

my memories form a surrealistic ballet
of images

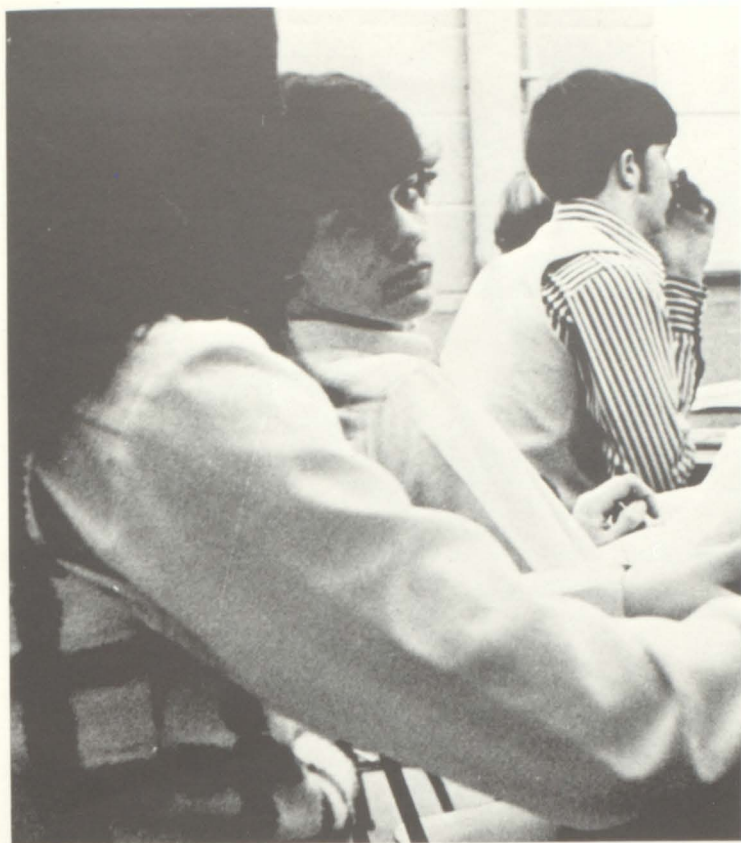

past, present, future,
choreographed by a tear
and a smile.

the warmth of concern
injected into my arteries
yet flows through my heart:
love;

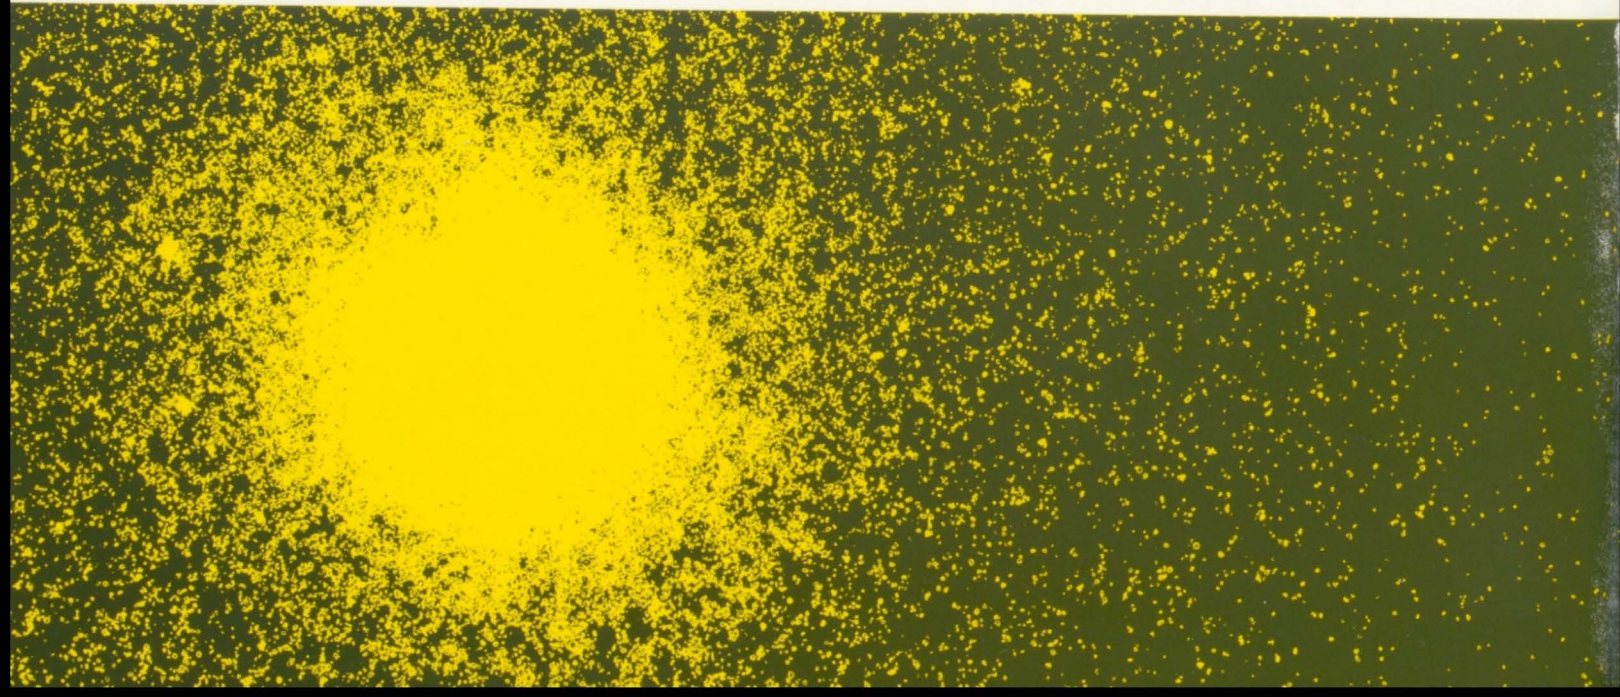

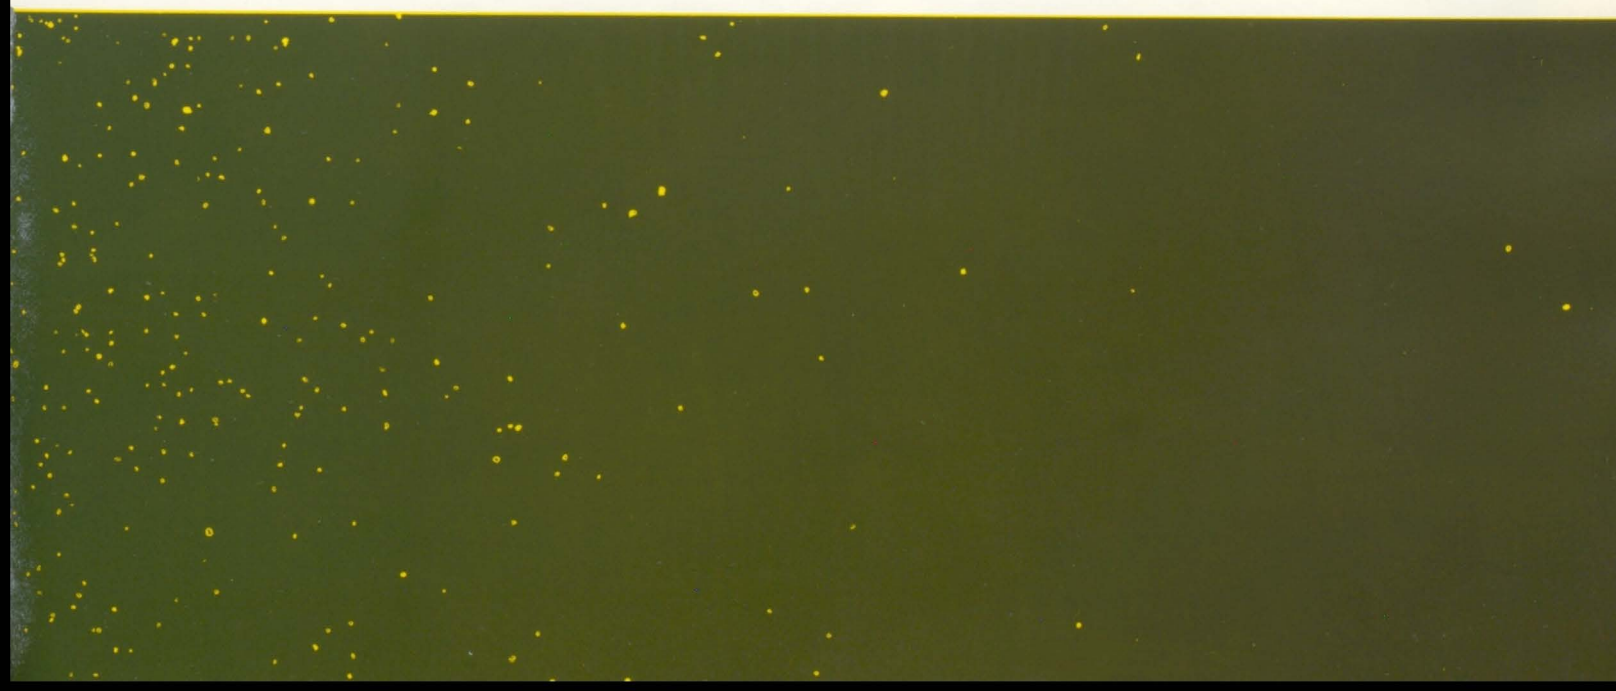

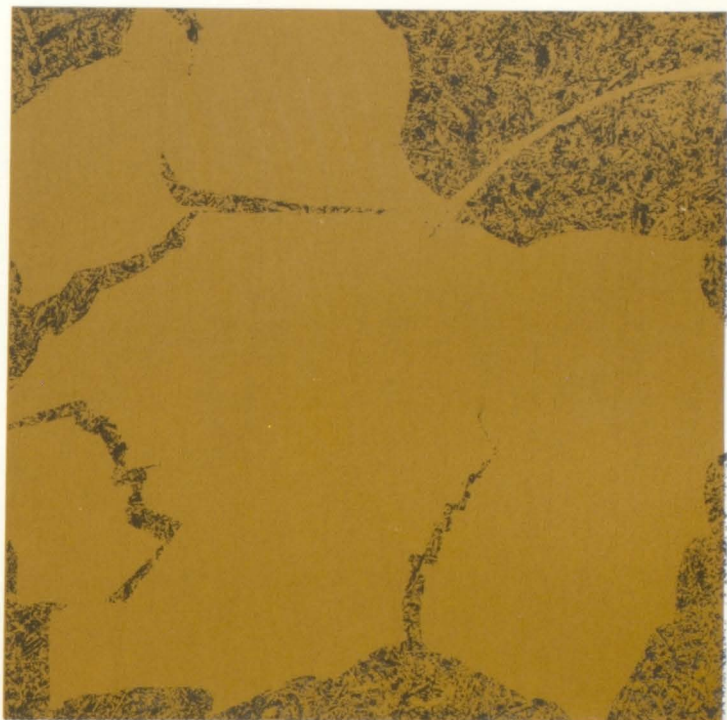

curocity and experimentation;
the need to experience,
the need to be.
alive.

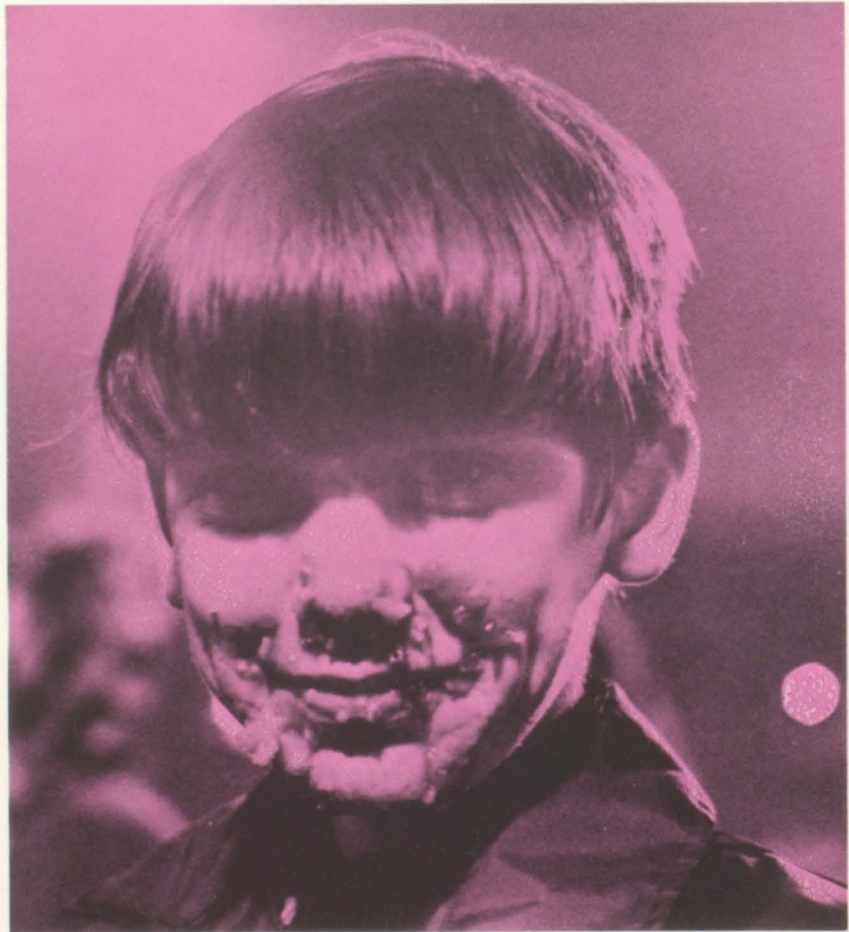

self-consciousness
to confidence.

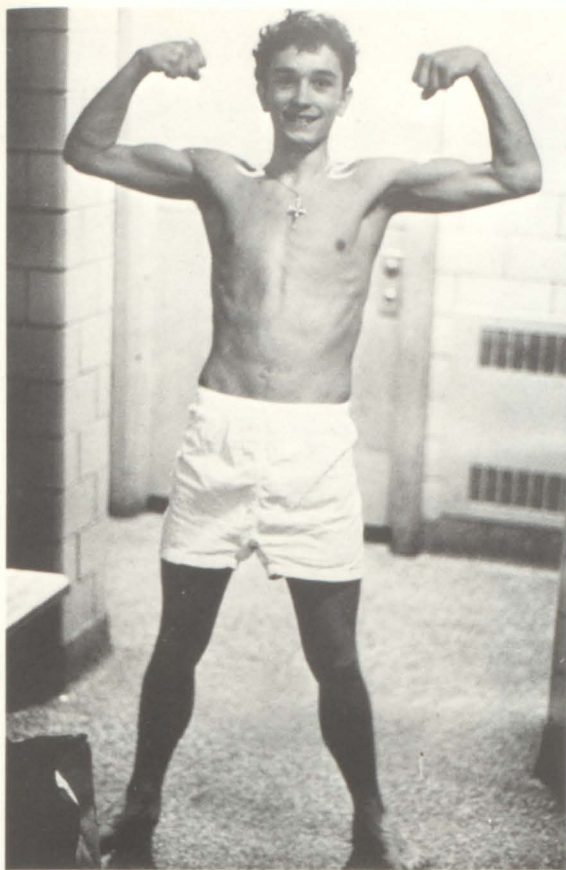

spring, summer, autumn, winter —
kaliedoscopic seasons
too quickly departed.

serious visions.
not-so-serious visions.

learning to play
all of life's little games.

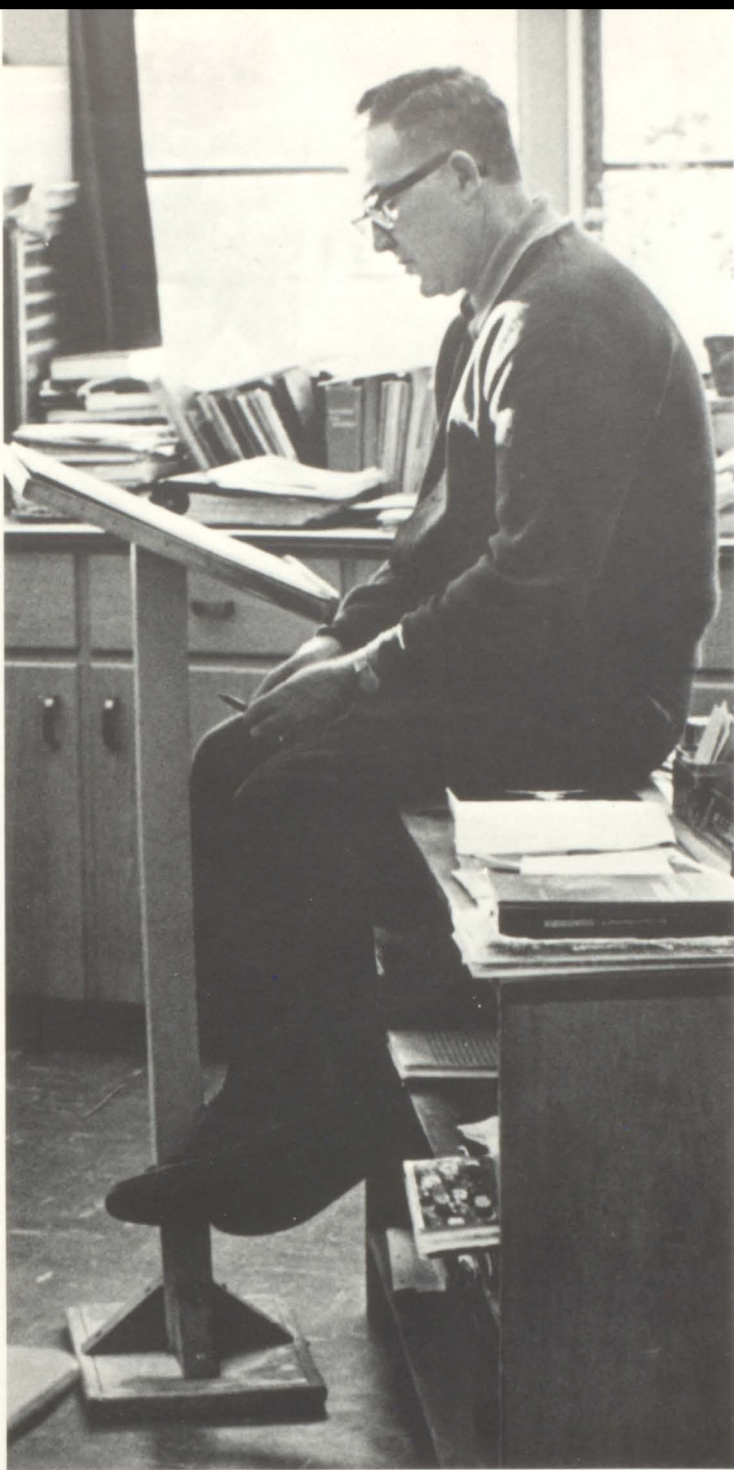

Confusion.

Questioning.

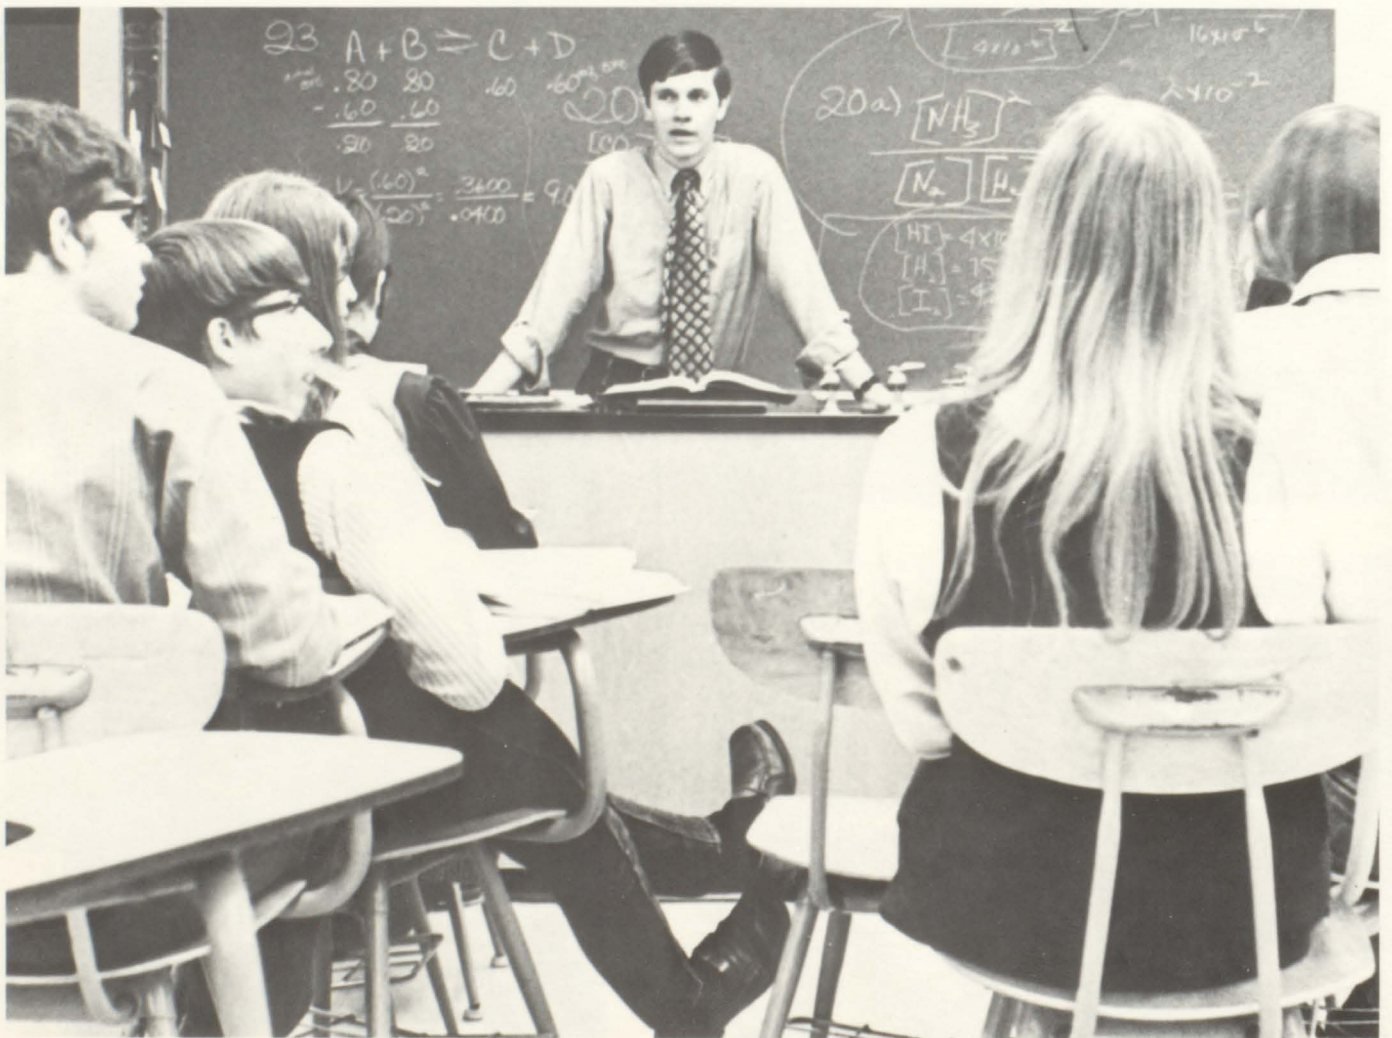

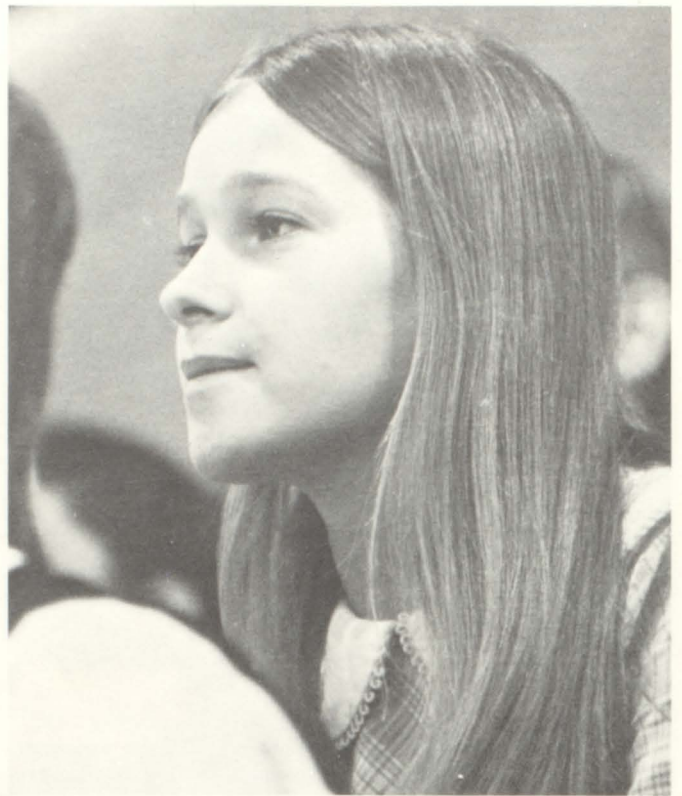

Thinking.

Learning.

Understanding.

Being.

so many things i will never again be.
gone.
lost in the Dalian scenery
of memories.
but the Living is only the beginning
of the experience,
the Recalling is its consummation.
leaving, then, is only a relative term.

hello!

lenawee county vocational center

This year the Vo-Tec program was in full swing. One-hundred and fifty Tecumseh students were bussed to Adrian to attend classes in mechanics, building trades, business, home economics, health and other areas. The students found the new program an exciting change from traditional curriculum.

exchange students

This year our exchange students come from almost opposite sides of the earth. Masahiko Akita, better known as Sam, comes from Seto City, Japan. He is staying with Art Lewis and his family.

Jelena Dejanovic, known as Candy, is staying with Bonnie Flanders and her family. Her hometown in Kikinda, Yugoslavia.

Both students stayed the entire year, and graduated as members of the class of 1971.

clubs and activities

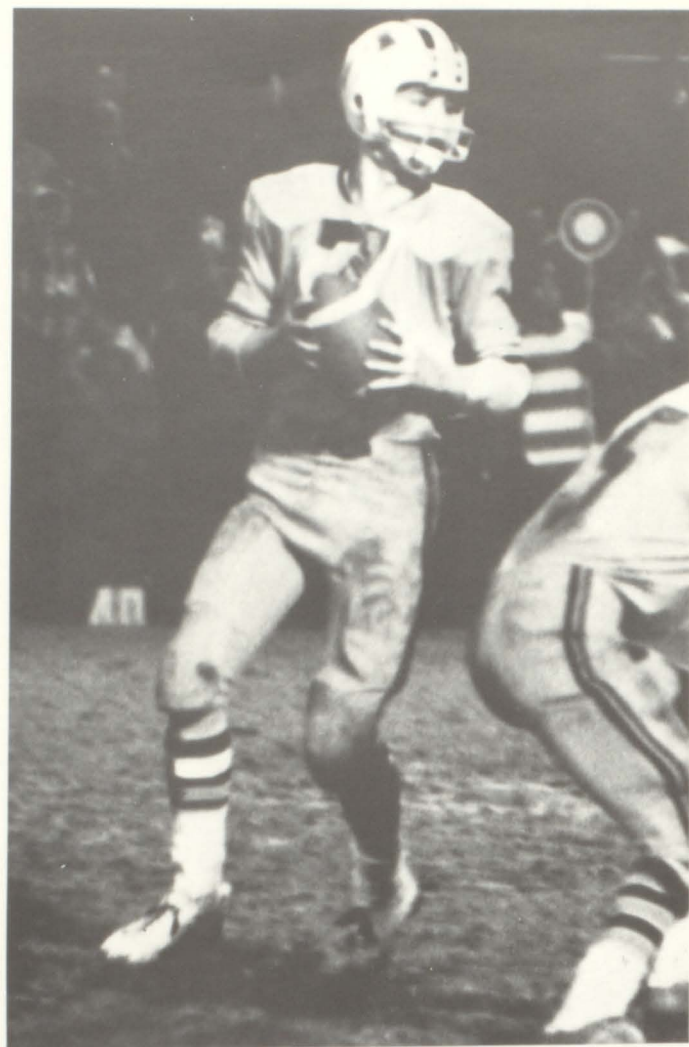

homecoming 1970

Tecumseh creamed 2nd ranked Monroe C. C. in a whopping 22-0 Homecoming Victory. At half-time 10 floats paraded in front of 4,000 fans. The Seniors float placed first in class competition, the Juniors second, Sophomores third, and the Freshmen float fourth. In club competition, the Art Club captured first place, followed by G.A.A., second, and Spanish Club third. The most beautiful mermaid of all, Queen Mary Lopez, reigned over the Homecoming dance, the theme of which was "Beneath the Sea." The Committee provided music.

dust

The Student Assembly brought the Dust for an hour's entertainment and an evening concert. We will long remember the hard rock music, magic tricks and the gratitude of Alice.

student elections

"Nap for S.A.P.," and "Student Body by Fisher" were being chanted around the school during the elections for president of Student Assembly. Bill Knapp represented the Class of '72 and was victorious over Ross Fisher for the office of President.

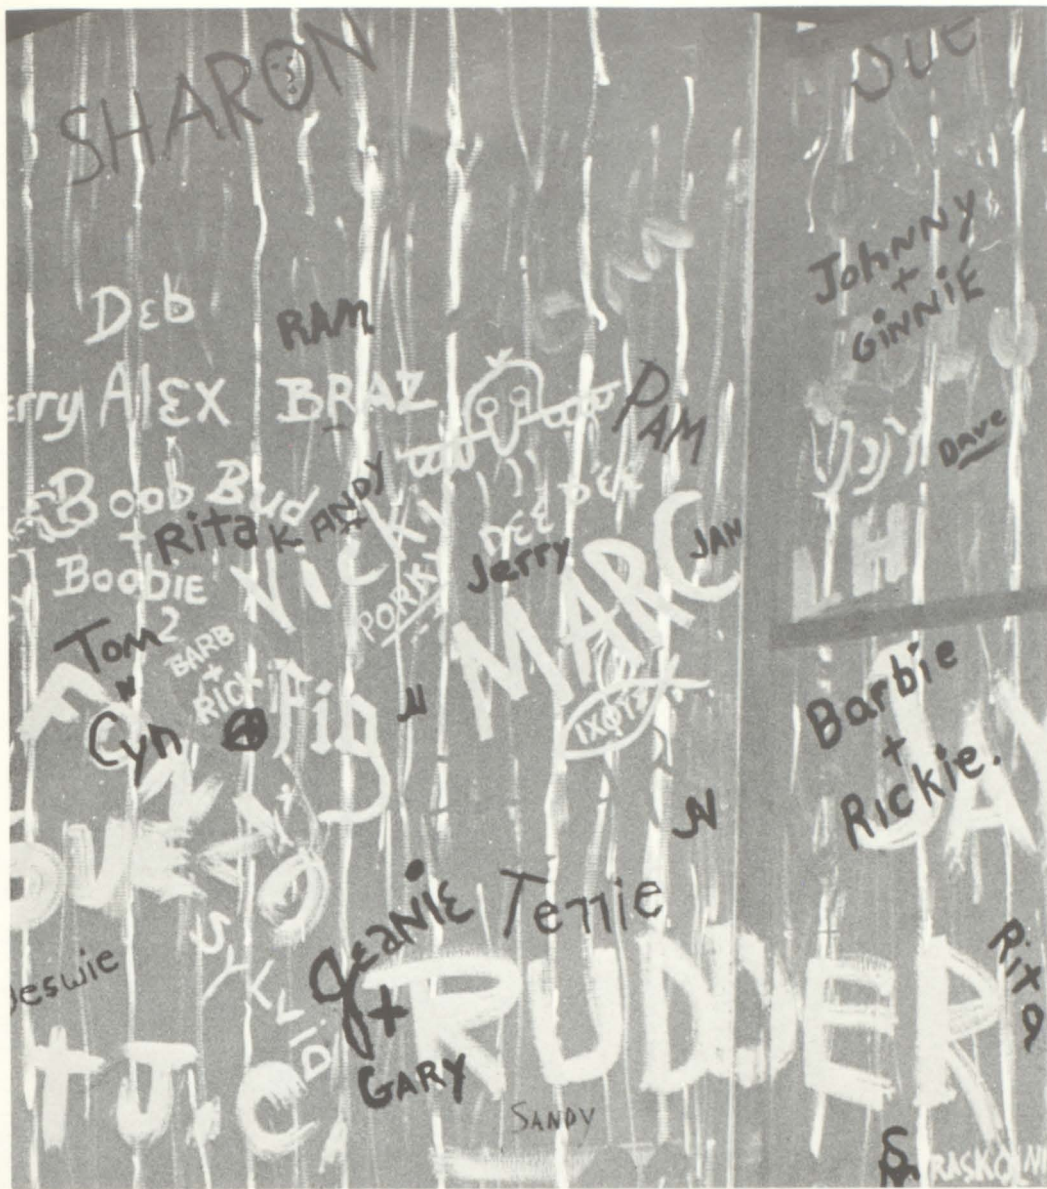

class night

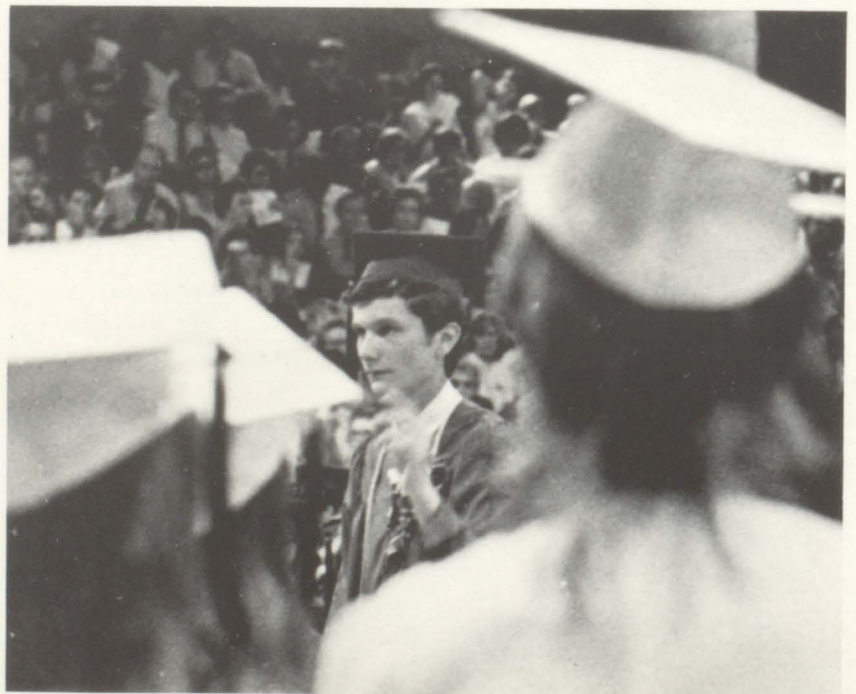

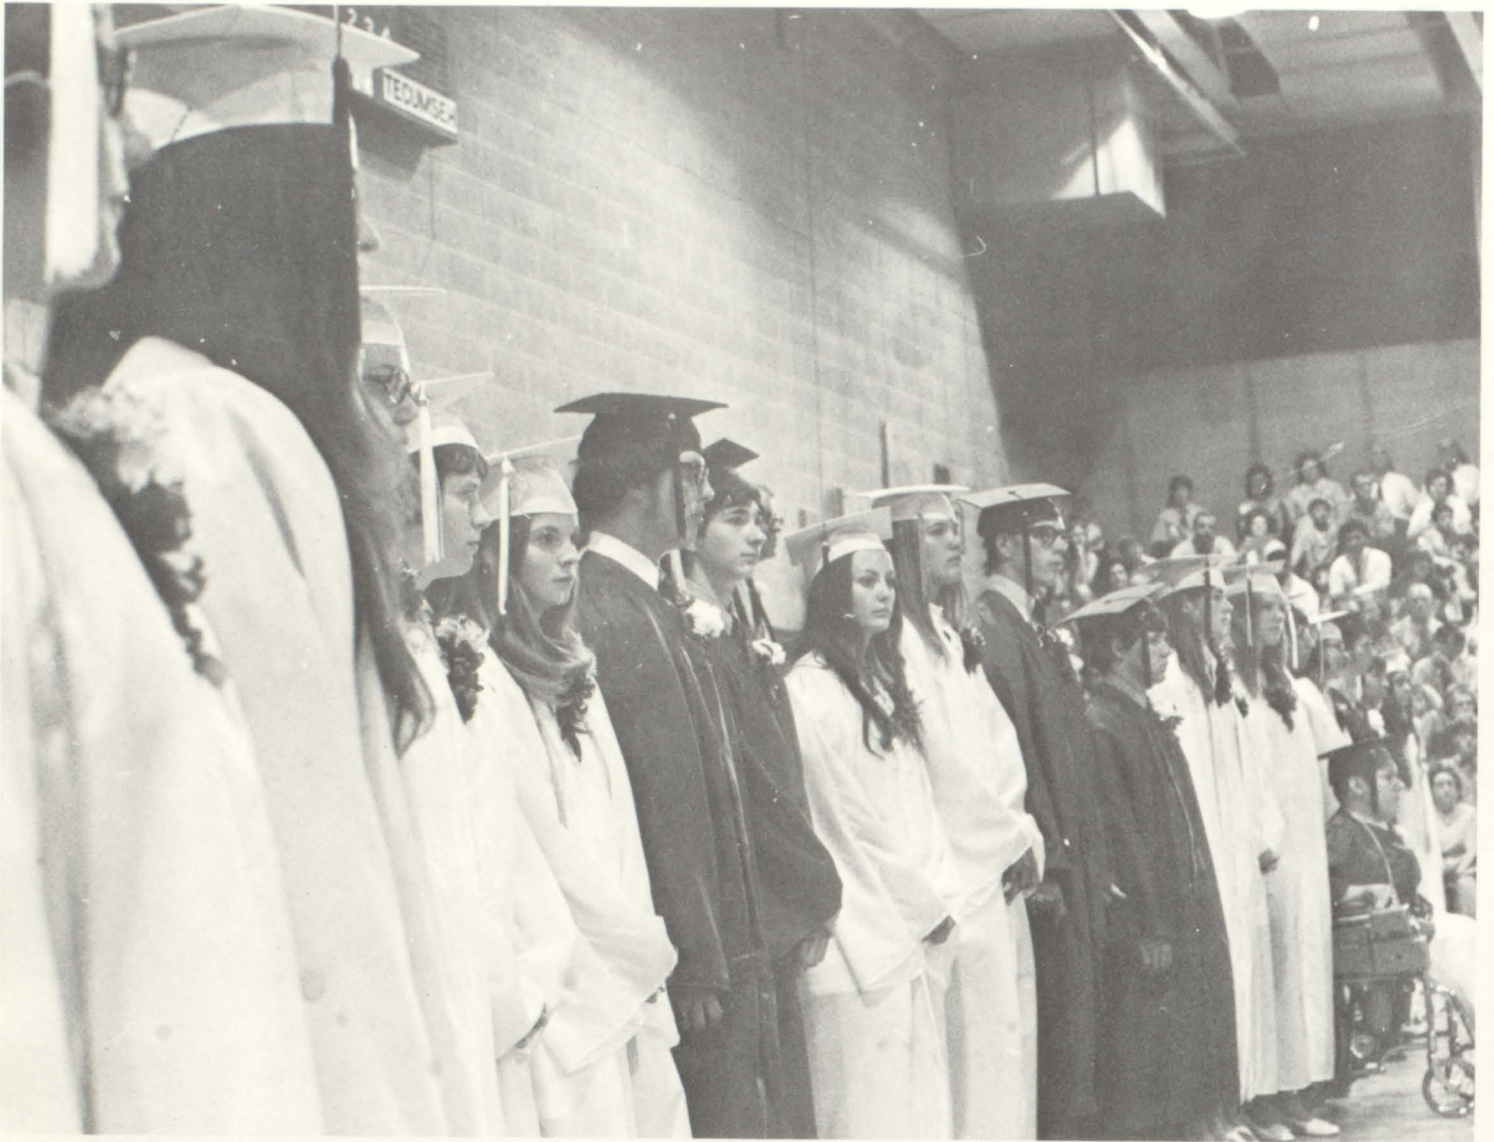

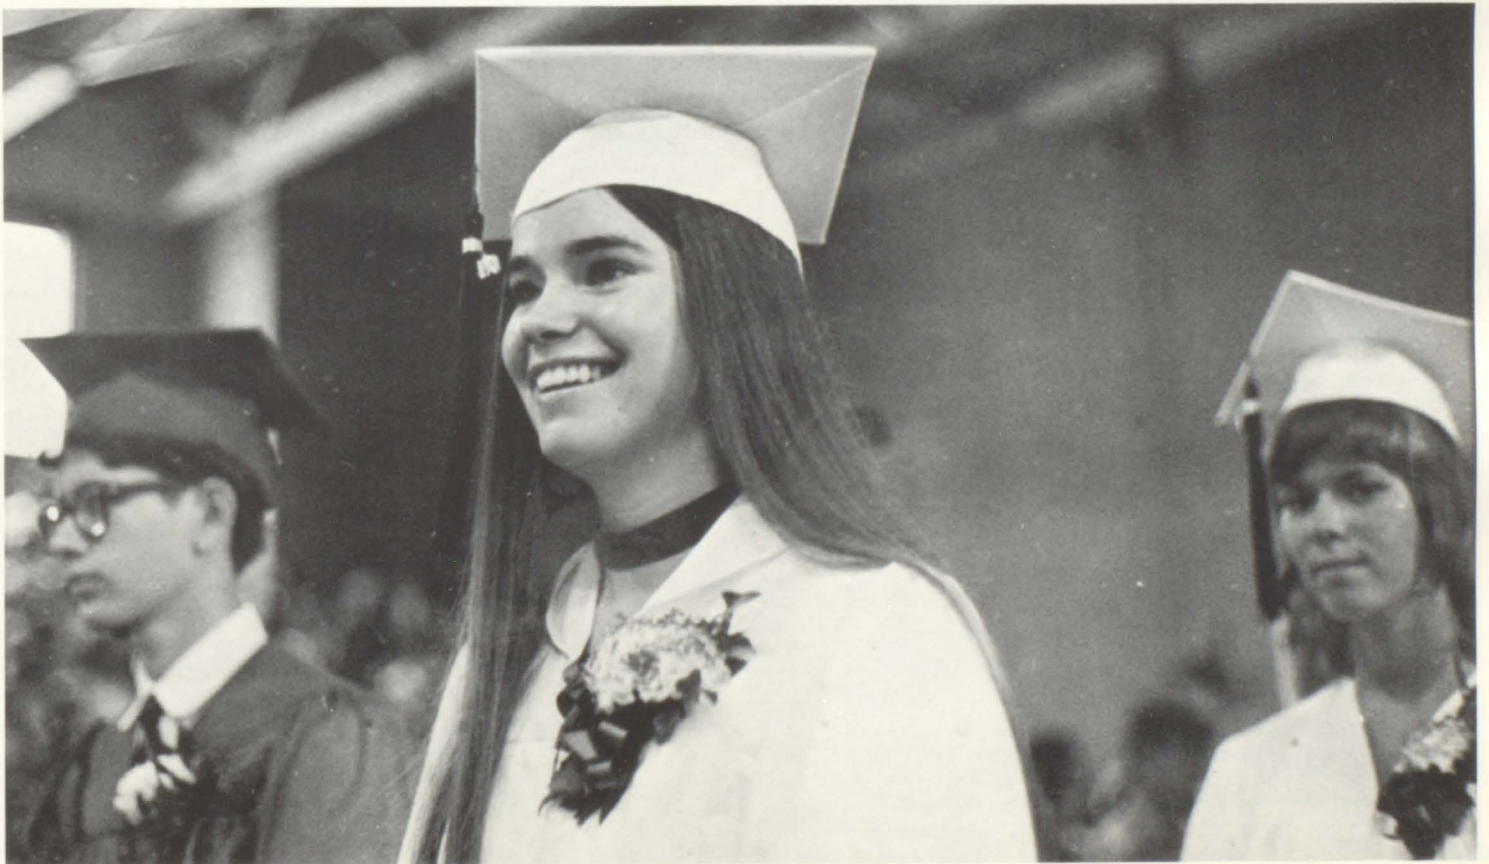

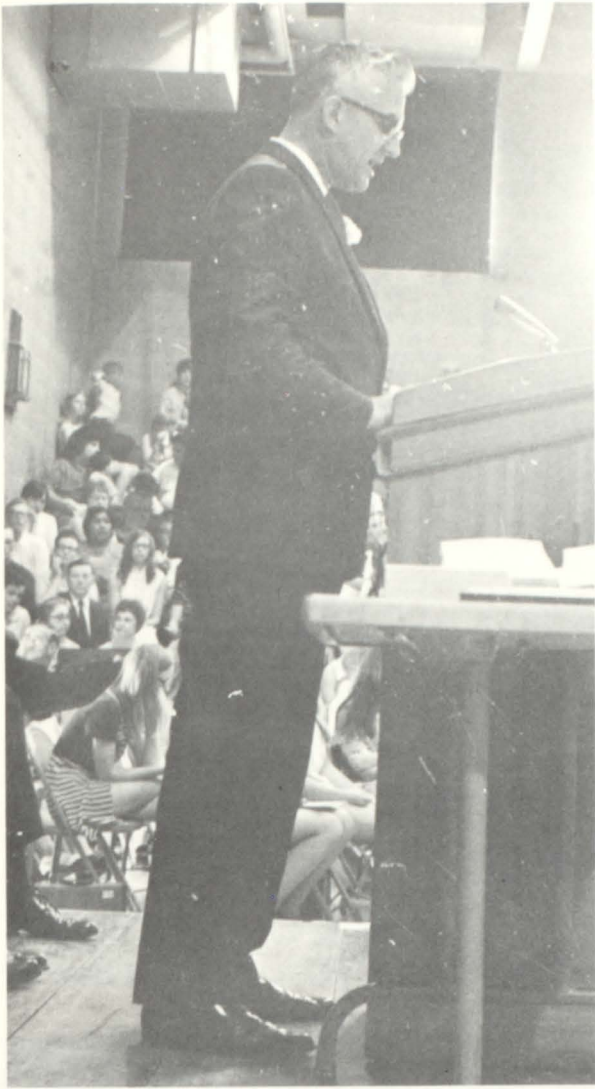

The Class of '71 presented "We've Only Just Begun" as their class night theme. Vickie Cook and John Dustin highlighted the program with their own song and dance selections. Lee Ann Schnieder and Guy Manwaring shared the spotlight as Mistress and Master of Ceremonies.

This year the Juniors invited the Seniors to spend An Evening in Paris. The Bonaventures provided the music. Seniors Edith Radant and Gary Hannibal (right) were crowned Queen and King. Mary Lopez and Doug Feight (below), and Sylvia Steele and Sam Akita (below right) served on the court.

This year, the yearbook staff faced seemingly insurmountable obstacles in creating the ANATH 1971. Split apart by schedule conflicts, we found it difficult and, at times, almost impossible to maintain communication. It was only sheer clairvoyance that kept it all together. And, as it turns out, we are very proud of this year's book.

The major change in the yearbook is the late delivery schedule, a decision made only after carefully considering all the alternatives. We felt that it would be better to include the spring activities with the body of the book, thus eliminating the supplement section. This insures that each person will receive a totally complete document of the year. Additionally, it saves printing expense and provides us with more time to refine rough areas and mold the book into a finished artwork.

We are greatly indebted to Mr. Paul Cunningham, the Tecumseh Herald, and Sam Akita for their cooperation with our photography department. Especially noteworthy this year is the excellent cover artwork provided by the multitalented Marc Beard. Of this year's introduction section we are particularly proud, for many hours were spent in collaborative desperation, emerging finally with a most unique experience in yearbook photojournalism. In order to unite the collage of images, we used a poem; in order to assure relevance, it is an original. Marc wrote it.

Let it suffice to conclude that those to whom we owe the most are you — the students, faculty, and administration of Tecumseh High School. We sincerely thank you for your support, assistance, and your patience, and hope that you will find the ANATH 1971 enjoyable.
