Summer 1990: Gone But Not Forgotten

By Teresa Nelson

Summer 1990 was a summer filled with activities for all grades. Over 200 students at THS took a crack at passing a drivers education course given by our own THS staff. The number of students who actually passed the course is not certain.

Plenty of students from our school were also busy with sports camps. The varsity football team and the girls and boys varsity basketball teams all went to college camps. The girls and boys cross country teams were also out running every weekday morning by 8:00 a.m.

Summer jobs are also a time consuming activity. Various jobs were performed by THS students, from serving ice cream at Frosty Boy to umpiring and coaching teams of future THS students.

Another summer feature of 1990 was the summer dances held at the Tecumseh Community Center. At one of the dances, close to 200 people were counted at the door. Students from Britton, Clinton, and Onsted also attended these dances.

Homecoming: Pep-Rally, Parade, Windows and Game

By Jacob Casteel

The 1990-91 Homecoming festivities and game went down in school history as the best we've had in years. Homecoming is traditionally one of the best times of the school year. It starts as devoted students working on floats and by the end of the week students have put in many frustrating hours finishing the floats and painting windows. Girls have participated in powderpuff football and boys in volleyball. Another part of Homecoming is Dress Up Days. This year Monday of Homecoming week was Inside Out Day; Tuesday, College T-Shirt Day; Wednesday, Hat and Sunglasses Day; Thursday, Doo-Rag Day and Friday, Class Colors Day.

By Friday the anticipation of the game and the anticipation of the winners of the Homecoming king and queen had students and teachers buzzing. Every year as a part of Homecoming the school elects a senior boy and girl as the king and queen. The whole election starts out as nominations of a boy and a girl in each home room class. Although freshmen, sophomores and juniors are not able to win king or queen they are still nominated and narrowed down to a boy and a girl as a representative for each class. The seniors narrow down all nominees to three boys and three girls that are to be voted for on Homecoming Friday by the whole school.

This year the finalists for the freshman class were Laura Palmer and Zack Stuckey. The sophomore class representatives were Laura Bishop and Jason Scheffler. Junior class representatives were Brooke Schwede and Brent Gnodtke. This year's senior finalists were Andy Poppink, Joe Keebler, Mike Slusarski, Sharon Stanley, Mindy Campbell and Lisa Richardson. The school voted, and at the half time of the game the winners would be announced.

On the Friday of Homecoming students got out of their fifth hour class forty minutes early to participate in a pep-rally in which each class competed against the others in games on the football field. This year the seniors were victorious, with 55 points. After the pep-rally was over the whole school, divided by classes, walked in a parade through town showing off their floats and raising the spirits of the people watching. By the time this was over, all that was left was the game and the announcement of the king and queen.

The game was against the Milan Big Reds and Tecumseh entered the game with a disappointing 2-3 record. From the first snap of the football to the last, the game was back and forth.

The halftime festivities started off by the showing of the floats and the announcement of the winning one, the freshman-sophomore float. Next came the revealing of the 1990-91 Homecoming king and queen. With great anticipation, the students and the candidates awaited the decision.

The announcement was made and the crowd cheered: Sharon Stanley and Andy Poppink were the newly crowned royalty.

After halftime the Indians showed great team spirit when they were down in the ending seconds of the final quarter and came back to win, 29-28. The big play of the game was made by injured fullback/outside linebacker, Brandon Cox. Sitting out most of the game because of an ankle injury, Brandon, a normal starter, was eager to play and got his chance. The Big Reds had the ball and were running out the clock. The ball was snapped, Brandon read the pass play, intercepted the ball and ran it back for the winning touchdown.

"I thought the pep rally was fun," said junior Teresa Nelson. "But athletes should be able to participate."

After The Bell Rings

A Time For Friends and Fun

By Jennifer Graham

There is a lot of pressure on students to do well in school. We all know that school isn't always fun, but these pictures prove that THS students find ways of having fun in school. Most of the students do things with friends like go to dances and sporting events for fun. Freshman Jennifer Warren said, "The dances are fun because you get to be around your friends and just dance and have a good time." Most students have good things to say about school events like pep rallies. Junior Shawna Cox said, "I think the pep rallies for the big games like Homecoming are the best." Amy Quigley, a junior, said, "The best event of the year is probably Homecoming because it brings out a lot of school spirit and it's a chance for you to be with your friends." It's always fun to be with friends and sometimes having fun takes the pressure off a student.

Christmas Dance:

Unchained Melody Draws Friends

by Nikki Brady

On the night of December 8, 1990, the T.H.S. seniors sponsored the annual Christmas dance, Unchained Melody. With attendance peaking out at over one hundred and fifty couples, space on the cafeteria dance floor grew extremely limited. Due to the new gym floor, the cafeteria was the only alternative place to have the dance. As the night grew on, the number of couples grew larger, and space grew smaller. But the excitement intensified.

Many couples agree that the dance itself went over quite well, and getting dressed up in the formals for this mini-prom was well worth the money spent. "The catering was really nice, it was beautiful," said junior Teresa Nelson. "It was made of fruit in the shape of swans and birds."

With the cafeteria decked out in lights and the music spinning non-stop, in the eyes of all who attended the Christmas Dance was a total success.

TICWSS: A THS Winter Homecoming

By Ivy Powell

During the week of February 25 people noticed a change in the dress of the students at THS. It was the beginning of the annual TICWSS week and everyone was filled with the excitement of the winter homecoming. On Monday, students came in boxer shorts. Tuesday was Hat Day; Wednesday, Nike Day; and Thursday, orange/black attire. Friday everyone came dressed in their classiest toga.

During the course of the week, there were many special events.

Tuesday, there were three basketball games. Freshmen, JV, and Varsity all played against Columbia Central and all of them won.

Thursday was the faculty - students volleyball game. In the women's game, the teachers played hard but were defeated by the students. Ms. Fisher said, "The THS Faculty volleyball team was dynamite. However, the awesome students snatched a victory- 21-19." The men, on the other hand, showed the young students how it's done. "The men's faculty volleyball team consisted of an exceptional group of highly trained, dedicated athletes," said team player Mr. Huff.

On Friday, everyone gathered in the gym for the pep rally. There were different games from tug-of-war to wrapping fellow classmates in toilet paper and carrying them down the court.

The only event left was the basketball game that night and to see who would be crowned the new TICWSS King and Queen. The parents of both the cheerleaders and players were welcomed to the evening's activities. Then senior Cathy Hunerberg sang the national anthem, and the game against Dexter was off. The game went pretty smoothly. By the half, Tecumseh led 50-15.

At half-time the TICWSS court was introduced. They were freshmen Sarah Hollenback and Tom Richardson; sophomores Sandy Sevald and Wayne Lowe; and juniors Kate Skelton and Jason Stewart. The senior female nominees were Michelle Whelan, Amy Hammond, Ann Solitro and Kristi Morrow; the guys were Bob Hathcock, Matt Ash, Brandon Cox and Bryan Pemberton. Homecoming King and Queen, Andy Poppink and Sharon Stanley crowned Bob Hathcock and Ann Solitro the new 1991 TICWSS King and Queen.

Now all that was left was to see who would win the game: Tecumseh won 83-45.

There is no question that our sports program has been on the uprise. When non-residents hear our name "Tecumseh", they automatically think sports champions !

Stairway To Heaven

By Teresa Nelson

This year's Prom was sponsored by the class of 1992. The early Prom date of April 20 was a result in conflicting views on where the Prom should be held. The end decision on location for the Prom was Sauk Valley, where it has been held many years before.

The professional pictures capturing this formal's highlights were taken by Kevin Trickey. Everyone enjoyed the music at Prom which was D.J.ed by Superb Sound and Lighting's Fran Shaffer. According to Meggan Aiuto, "They played a lot of good slow songs."

The Prom queen and king were announced late in to the dance. The winners were Mindy Campbell and Marc Danley.

After the Prom many students went to the After Prom Party which was held at the high school. The students had access to the pool, the gym, the cafeteria and the music rooms. There was gambling at all different kinds of casino tables and gifts given away every fifteen minutes. At the end of the night everyone gathered in the cafeteria to hear the winning numbers for the "Big Prizes". A micro-wave oven was given away and a refrigerator too. The biggest prizes were ticket numbers shared by couples: the CD player was won by Trica Johnson and Brent Gnodke and the color TV was won by Teresa Nelson and Jason Stewart.

All and all Prom 1991 was a successful and safe Prom, and that's what's important.

SENIORS

The seniors of T.H.S. have been walking the halls aimlessly - sometimes anxiously, sometimes dreadfully - for June to finally come around. As we walk through these halls we tend to find some laughter along the way; but before we leave our memories behind us we'd like to say a few words of wisdom.

The Class of '91 has tons of school spirit, but we'd like to see it throughout the whole school. Don't wait until your senior year for the school spirit to begin; it should start your freshman year. These are the years to remember, make them fun and memorable. That is what it's all about.

Another thought we'd like to add is that the up-coming seniors have a lot of responsibility. Set an example for those new freshmen, but not so they have hatred towards you. For the new juniors, don't teach them good habits only teach them bad ones (just joking!!). Remember the high school looks on you the way you are.

As this year of 1990-1991 comes to an end, and we leave all the dedication to those becoming seniors, only one more word of advice: DON'T DRINK AND DRIVE !!!!!!!!!!!

GOOD-BYE !!

The Class of '91

SENIOR DEFINITIONS
 Not (na) adv. - in no way, a negative doing or thought; a negative response; a bad idea.
 Bolt (bolt) n. - to run out or run away suddenly; to leave quickly.
 Holy (hol-ee) adj. - unbelievable, amazing, astonishing, incredible, dumbfounded.
 Buddy (bed-e) n. - companion, partner, friend, fellow, comrade, side-kick.

TIME

The memories that we shared,
The future that we hold,
As we look back,
Remembering of those.

Time is precious,
As we were told.
Time for new,
Time for old.

Don't let go to that dream you hold,
Just hang on, reach for the GOLD.

Exchange Students:

From Their Country To Ours

By Jennifer Graham

Europe is composed of many small countries. The people in each country are very different from each other. Nearly all of the people are classified as caucasian, but there are differences in color of skin, hair, and eyes. Light coloring is dominant in the north and darker coloring is common in southern Europe.

In Europe children are expected to be polite and quiet in the presence of adults although their upbringing is not as strict as it was before World War II. In many parts of Europe many generations of a family live in the same house. Social activities usually revolve around family events. The father of the family usually comes home for lunch. There is often a coffee break in midafternoon. Dinner is the last family meal of the day.

All six of this year's exchange students are from different countries in Europe.

Birgitte Pederson lives in Esbjerg, Denmark. She said her school system is much different than Tecumseh. At her school students can quit school in ninth grade or they can continue school. If they continue there are many three-year schools to choose from.

"I always wanted to come to America because I saw movies of America and I wanted to see how it really is," said Caroline Ammon. She is from Holstein, a small village in Switzerland.

Boris Paetz is from Rellington, Germany. He said, "The things that are the most different here is everything is less expensive here and the food is different."

Senior Margreet Krottje is seventeen years old. She is from Bolsward, Holland. She said Bolsward and Tecumseh have about the same amount of people, but Tecumseh is more scattered out.

Nacho Gracia lives in Zaragoza, Spain. Some of his hobbies are listening to music, playing basketball, and enjoying after school activities with his friends.

His sister, Belen, was an exchange student last year at T.H.S.

Fifteen-year-old, Malin Lundgren lives in Boras, Sweden. She said, "The biggest difference here from Sweden is the food, school, and the way people are."

Senor Mejia, Spanish teacher, said, "The exchange students come to America for the cultural awareness because if you live the experience it is a lot different than reading it in a text book."

Not only do the exchange students benefit from their experience here, but we also learn a lot from them. This is the only way a lot of American students get a view of other cultures.

Awards Night

Academic Program Honors Excellence

By Julie Crumb
Nicki Curtis

May 21, 1991 at 7:30 pm was Tecumseh High's 16th annual Awards Nights. One hundred ninety-seven students were honored for their academic achievement.

Many awards were given away that night. Some of them are the Departmental Award, the Senior with a 3.0 and Higher Grade Point Average, the Presidential Fitness Award and, for 10th and 11th graders, the MEAP awards.

To receive a departmental award students have to be nominated by a teacher then approved by the department. Before teachers make a final selection they consider the student's academic achievement, growth and progress in the subject area, classroom citizenship, and contribution to the class.

The MEAP awards are given for a 100% test score in the subject areas of math, science and reading.

Some special awards were also given out that night including Outstanding Student Council award, the Hugh O'Brien Foundation and the DAR Good Citizenship award.

"I think this program best recognizes successful accomplishment on the essential purpose of Tecumseh High School," said Mr. Victor Stevens, program organizer.

In Tribute

It's Been a Year of Changes at THS

A Brand New Start

A new edition to the smaller courtyard by the pool has been recently planted. Yes, planted. An Amelanchier tree in memory of Heidi Brewer was planted in the Spring of 1990. It was the idea of the orthopedics class, a sight to remind them of her. Heidi was sixteen years old when she passed away. The tree can be a symbol of a new life form, continuing to grow with the memories of her included.

A Tribute to Phil D. Jaimes

Phil Jaimes was one of a kind. I can't think of one person who disliked him. He was very special to us all. None of us will ever forget his smirking grin or his cocky laugh. He always had a positive attitude. I guess one of the many things I will remember about Phil is the winning touchdown pass he caught in our last game of our J.V. Football season against Monroe Catholic Central with 48 seconds left in the game. We called a time out and we weren't sure what to do. Phil hadn't been open all night on his pass routes, but when Coach Jim Stevens came out on the field, Phil said, "I'll be open coach, I'll be open." So we all said a team prayer and with many doubts in my mind, there were none in Phil's, and sure enough, he was open. He caught the pass and took it in for a touchdown.

And though the halls seem emptier now and the football practice fields a little gloomier, we will never forget Phillip, our Phillip, for he will always be in our memories and in our hearts. As we gather around the Clinton wall and later the tree and expressed our memories of Phil Jaimes last night we all laughed about our memories of him. It couldn't have been any better. It would be the way Phil wanted it. And I am sure Phil was laughing with us.

And as for the people Phil left behind, he loved us all. He thought the very most of his family. And just by talking to Phil you could just sense the love he had for his mother, his father, brothers and sisters. He really couldn't have asked for a better family.

We will all miss Phil, we love you very much and there is little piece of you in all of us. Rest in peace Phil, we love you.

This tribute to Phil was written by his classmate, teammate, and FRIEND, Brent Gnodtke. 10-16-1990

Renaissance (ren'e sans)-n. the encouragement of academic participation, such as in attendance and grade point average in which the student benefits with gold, black or orange card that entitles him to discounts, breakfast during exams, athletic passes, etc.

Designed to keep up the grades and keep down the absences for every student, the program's geared to motivate every student at THS.

Channel One

5....,4....,3....,2....,1.... Channel One is one of our new sights here at THS. For those who are unable to catch the current news in their busy schedule of school and social activities, this is the answer. A cast of four energetic news correspondents brings us world and local news everyday bright and early at 9:37 a.m. It is safe to say, Channel One can be absorbed by young and old viewers in an educational environment.

A Special Touch...

The halls of THS hold a new showcase in memory of Phillip D. Jaimes. This was the idea of Mr. Pat Connors, who organized the display along with the football, baseball, and wrestling teams. Included are his team pictures and a plaque in memory of his contributions to Tecumseh High School.

Cross-Age Tutoring:

Students Teaching Students

By Ivy Powell

Cross-Age Tutoring is the greatest class for anyone who enjoys being with younger kids. Senior Lori Shultz said, "The best part of the class is the kids."

The tutors help the teachers to plan activities and help out during class. They do everything from grade papers to help at the parties. Junior Niki Brady said, "I enjoy enlightening younger people's minds."

In order to become a cross-age tutor, you must fill out an application. The applications can be obtained when you make your schedule for your junior year. Tutors must also be recommended by two teachers and are evaluated on attendance, teacher recommendations and past discipline record.

The cross-age tutoring class consists of students going to elementary schools within the district. Juniors and seniors go out to the schools daily to help with the younger students.

The tutors keep a journal for this class. They write what they do in the class and with the kids. These journals are turned in to class instructor Mrs. Karla Sutherland about every three weeks.

During the time the tutors are gone, Mrs. Sutherland makes frequent trips to the schools. "I go to the schools and make sure everyone is there and doing the best job that they can," said Mrs. Sutherland.

Celebration of Writing

Annual Writing Extravaganza is A Big Success at THS

By Jennifer Graham

The Celebration of Writing was held Thursday and Friday, May 16 and 17 in the Tecumseh High School library. This is the program's sixth year at THS. It was started by English teacher Mrs. Dinah Wakeford.

"I took a graduate class at Michigan State University and there I was a part of the Celebration of Writing," Wakeford explained. "It was such a neat experience that I wanted other people to have it, too. I like watching students' ideas grow from their beginnings to fantastic final projects. I also like to watch the students' confidence as writers grow and I like watching students' faces as they read the comments from people who have come to the exhibit."

The exhibits were created during class in the 1990-91 school year. They could be an essay, short story, biography, autobiography, poem, speech, myth, fable, research, or drama piece that was of a suitable length to be read in a short time. Each entry also had something that attracted the reader to read the piece like a picture, sculpture, poster, display, notebook, or photos.

Junior Shawna Cox, a student who had a paper in the Celebration of Writing, said, "The writing piece I did was an assignment, but if it wasn't I would have done it anyways. I think the Celebration of Writing is a good idea because the kids that like to write have a chance to show their talents."

Junior Teresa Nelson said, "I think the Celebration of Writing is a good idea because it gives people a chance to show that they are a good writer and maybe no one knew it before."

The Celebration of Writing is a fun experience and many people enjoy going to it. The Celebration of Writing motivates students to do well and work hard to write a good paper because so many people will be reading what they've written. And they had fun writing it too!

Practical Arts Show

Student Artisans Display Great Talent

By Shawna Cox

Most kids consider it an honor to be asked to put something in the practical arts show. It's something they keep in mind every time they are working on a project. A lot of students participate, according to the practical arts teachers: approximately 625 students enter something into the practical arts show, two thirds of all THS students

"The show is a good idea, but it's a lot of work and responsibility," said home economics student Angie Davis.

On the average most students spend 3-4 weeks on their projects. "It's really exciting seeing your work that you've worked so hard on. It gives you the chance to show your friends what you have been working on all year," said art student Chris Barber.

The projects that the art department enters into the show have the chance of receiving either a merit award or a purchase award. The merit award honors students for doing a good job, and the purchase award is when someone actually buys a project.

Drafting and industrial art students have a lot of freedom as to what they are going to design or create. "There is a lot of competition between the students in drafting that are serious about the class," said drafting student Frank Marcinkiewicz. Students generate their own ideas, and this makes the projects a little more challenging for them.

The show, which is traditionally held in late May, gives the many students the chance to display their best projects of the year.

"The art show is a great way for students to express themselves. It gives them a chance to really show what they are capable of," said art student Amy Quigley.

The Pride and Joy of Tecumseh High School

By Nicki Curtis

One of the more popular activities at Tecumseh High School is band. The T.H.S. music department has four separate groups: concert band, symphonic band, jazz band, and choir.

Many band members enjoy the activity enough to stay in it through their high school years. Liz Nuzum, a 10th grader in concert band, said, "I plan to stay in band until I'm a senior."

Sophomore Nicki Smith said, "I joined band because it looked like fun and I'm glad I did because it has been a great experience but it also gets frustrating at times."

Band instructor Mr. Jimmie Rice said, "Band is easy and not stressful so many students take it."

Kaylene Majeske, a 12th grader in symphonic band, describes the band's purpose in this way: "The purpose of band is to develop our musical skills and our appreciation for music and to teach us to work as a team towards a common goal."

Mr. Rice added, "Through band performance you learn music."

The music classes provide a major contribution to T.H.S. because they are a part of most of the student activities.

Students who want to be envolved in T.H.S. activities and have lots of fun can do it easily.

A Day In Writing For Publication Class

by Shawna Cox

A few weeks ago I had the chance to spend an hour in the Writing for Publication class. When the bell rang everyone was busy - writing, planning layouts, taking pictures, and working on computers. "You're a reporter, an editor, and a typist all in one," said senior editor Erin Hug.

Writing for publication is unique from all other classes at T.H.S. In this class you have the chance to express yourself. You have a lot of freedom, but it is also a big responsibility.

Five times a year the Writing for Publication class turns out the THS Tribune. This gives the class a chance to practice what they have learned and show their talent to their classmates.

Tribune staffer Lizz Maynard said, "You have to be a creative thinker. When you're writing for a newspaper you have to be precise and to the point, no jibber-jabber. But at the same time you want to make it creative. Make it interesting so people are drawn to your story."

When most people think of a journalist they think of a person under a lot of stress trying to meet deadlines. Writing on the school newspaper is more laid back. "The Tribune Staff takes their time with the newspaper because they want to give students the best newspaper possible," said adviser Mrs. Kathy Lancaster. Writing for Publication isn't only an in-the-classroom subject. There is a lot of out of the classroom work to be done such as interviewing, going downtown to the Camera Shop or to The Tecumseh Herald.

The seniors in journalism have the opportunity of submitting stories to other publications such as city newspapers or national magazines. Senior editor Erin Hug submitted a story which was accepted and published by Cheer News Today magazine.

Journalism is a very rewarding class. You have the chance to show your talent to other people. Maynard said, "You are so proud of yourself when you open up the paper and you see this article that's really good and at the top of the article is your name."

YEARBOOK

A Publication For Students To Be Proud Of!

By Jennifer Warren

Publishing is the business of bringing the printed word to the public in books, magazines, and newspapers. Some publishing people are writers and editors who adapt the writers' works. Three basic fields of publishing are books, magazines, and newspapers.

In yearbook class, working together as a class is an adventure in publications. The students work hard to achieve a yearbook they're proud of. This class runs smoothly due to Mrs. Lancaster's helpful advice. The class breaks into groups to accomplish several things at one time. Different groups are assigned to different jobs.

Junior Niki Brady said she took yearbook class for the second year because "it gives me a chance to use my imagination, to help put the most important publication of the year out." Niki is the yearbook business manager.

Sophomore Jennifer Graham, Academics Editor, said, "Well I took this class because I'm really interested in publishing and it sounded like fun."

One of the photographers of yearbook class is ninth grader Marcia Campbell. She said she took this class because "it looked fun, different, and exciting. I also like to take pictures for this class."

Junior Shawna Cox, part of the copy writing staff, said, "We help people who have writing difficulties put their thoughts on paper better." The copy writing staff includes Bill Kurutz, Mary Olieman, Todd Oswald, Shawna Cox, and Jacob Casteel.

Advisor Mrs. Lancaster said, "Yearbook class is fun because students get to work together. They can be creative, and they can prepare a book that they're proud of. They also learn to run a small business."

Yearbook class is a way to use your imagination and be very creative. It's a class where a person can let their mind go wild with wonderful ideas and suggestions!

Orthopedics

Special Care for Special Kids

By Jennifer Warren

Orthopedics is the specialty of medicine that deals with diseases and injuries of limbs, bones, muscles, joints, tendons, and ligaments. The term orthopedics which literally means "straight children" goes back to the time when the profession was devoted to the treatment and correction of deformities in children. However, orthopedics now treats both children and adults for a variety of conditions.

Tecumseh High School has special classes for students with orthopedic-type difficulties. Right now there are eight students in the orthopedics program and three students in the deaf program.

The orthopedics class takes special field trips and has activities which vary from year to year.

One of the orthopedics helpers is junior Erin Shull. She volunteers during her lunches and helps out by playing games with the students. She has been doing this for a year.

One of the orthopedic students is senior Juan Bosquez. Bosquez is a basketball fan. He likes science and Spanish. He helped start the hispanic organization and is a student council representative.

Sophomore Jeff La Fountain is also a student here at THS. His favorite class is art and he is interested in autobody.

Freshman Steven Miller likes animals and art. He hopes to go to college after he graduates from high school to be an artist or a veterinarian.

In this orthopedics class, the students are fun to be with and are great people. There's a lot to learn about - and from - special students like these.

Time for fun...

Time for friends

Sophomore Julie Schmidt is planning on going into an international business-related career, and French is just a start on languages that she wishes to study. "I know people in France and I'd like to speak their language," she said. "Besides, I'm part French myself!"

The French Club is a good reason to do things fun with your classmates. French Club sponsors a dance and many other activities like hosting the foreign exchange students' reception after school.

Any way you look at it, if you are in French Club and enjoy the French culture, then you are going to have fun.

A lot of students claim that Spanish teaches more than just an educational language, there's fun involved too!

Spanish Club holds fundraisers for trips to Cedar Point and dances to help out their club financially. In the classroom, they listen to guest speakers and share their future plans involving the Spanish language.

As Jennifer Warren explains, "This is my first year in the Spanish Club, and so far I've had lots of fun in discussing activities and going on small trips. We're next planning to go to the movies. Senor Mejia helps us out a lot and he's a lot of fun too!"

Student Council

By Shawna Cox

Student Council is the voice of the student body. As students, we depend on them to present our concerns to the staff. "When students come to us, we go to student council and relay problems, and try to come up with the best possible solution," said student council member Joellen Nicholson.

Student Council has many major responsibilities such as planning Homecoming and TICWSS, and taking part in the Renaissance program. They also have a parking committee, and form other special committees to handle specific problems.

"If there wasn't a student council, the students would have little say in what goes on in the school because there would be little communication between the administration and the student body," said Nicholson.

Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Character are the four characteristics of all National Honor Society members. N.H.S. is a group of young men and women who have reached academic and social excellence and want to help the student body.

The requirements to get accepted into N.H.S. are a 3.3 cumulative g.p.a. and involvement in school, community, or church clubs.

N.H.S. members tutor fellow students in the subjects they feel they have the most knowledge of, usually the classes they have the highest grades in.

Meigan Maher believes the tutoring experience is rewarding. "It was nice to be able to see the difference in their work. It was rewarding to see their improvement and know that I helped with that improvement," she said.

Although N.H.S. is mainly a group to help the student body they also have many outside service projects that they work on such as a Christmas party at the nursing home here in Tecumseh, a toy drive, and an Easter party for the underprivileged children. "When you are doing service projects everyone works together," said member Robyn Pray.

"Being a member of N.H.S. has allowed me to set my priorities, create self discipline, and ascribe to my academic goals. National Honor Society gave me the opportunity to meet new people and encouraged my academic achievement," said Maher.

Equestrian Team

By Rachel Scott

The Tecumseh High School Equestrian Team is a unique sport: the athletes compete on horseback. Competition consists of three meets in the fall and possibly state, if they win their division. This year the team did very well. They placed second out of seven teams in the B-division.

There were six members on this year's team. At the meets there are many events to participate in. English, Speed, Saddleseat, and Western are just a few.

"I really enjoy participating in the meets, they're all a lot of fun!" says sophomore Nicki Curtis.

Not only did the team participate at meets, but they also rode in our Homecoming parade.

At the Year-End-Banquet the team received a Runner-up plaque to put in our show case.

The Tecumseh High School Earth Group is new this year. It is the first environmental group that T.H.S. has had. E.A.R.T.H. stands for Environmental Awareness and Recycling at Tecumseh High.

The group's adviser is Mr. Ferwerda. Their goals are to educate the student body on environmental issues and to encourage our school to use its resources wisely.

The group has done many activities already. For example, on October 20 they cleaned the river along the school. The group's very first project was quite successful: they collected eight bags and a whole truck-load of garbage. All that in only three hours!

Meetings alternate between Tuesdays and Wednesdays in Room 204, usually at 2:30. New members are always welcome, so if you're interested in helping to clean up our environment, stop by a meeting.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

By Julie Crumb

Otherwise known as FCA, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an extracurricular activity. The club is involved with many activities such as working at the junior high and high school athletic events, going to Michigan hockey games, visiting elderly people at a local nursing home, and cleaning up the courtyard.

At the games, the F.C.A. members run the clocks, keep score, and collect money at the door. Doing this earns the club money to pay for T-shirts and sweat-shirts and it pays for a lot of the hockey tickets.

The members go to the Herrick Mannor nursing home during Christmas time to sing Christmas carols and visit with the people.

If you're looking for a club that is known for being active, then F.C.A. is for you.

Varsity Club is one of the many after school activities at THS. It only requires you to be in or have been in a varsity sport of any kind.

Varsity Club is a very active organization. They work at athletic events to earn money to pay for clothing and for the Michigan hockey games that they attend as a group activity every year.

The club also has an Easter party for special kids of Tecumseh. The club members hold the party in the gym. The kids and members play games and have an Easter egg hunt in the school. "It's a lot of fun and it gives you a chance to share with others," said sophomore Nicole Randolph.

The Varsity Club is a fun and exciting club where you can make new friends and talk to old ones.

Art Club: A Fun Time!!!

By Nicki Curtis

Art Club has been around for many years. The purpose of Art Club is to promote art for members and for the rest of the world to see.

"I like Art Club because I get to spend time with my friends," says junior Amy Quigley.

Their biggest project is painting the windows downtown for Homecoming. The theme was Looney Toons. First place went to Robyn Pray, Monique Andre, Sharon Stanley, Ann Solitro, and Carol Hackstedde. Second went to Renee Feldman, Monique Andre, Sharon Stanley, and Ann Solitro. In third place were Jonna Ferguson, Debbie Barbre, Stephanie Harsh, and Abbey Frenzen.

Now the club is working on a mural in the cafeteria in addition to their Renaissance sign in the cafeteria.

Art Club is a lot of fun. The people in Art Club really enjoy being in it.

There is more to competition than just sports: there is competition of the mind. THS is fortunate to have two of these activities, Quiz Bowl and Equations. Both teams deal with the use of the mind in competition.

Jeremiah Mauricio said, "Quiz Bowl is fun and exciting when you are competing against other teams."

Equations is just as fun and exciting as Quiz Bowl. Equations puts mathematical problems together to get one positive answer.

If you think you are good in math and like to put your mind into practice, these two exciting clubs would be great to join.

A Winning Season

by Mary Olieman

The last few years Tecumseh varsity football teams have had losing seasons. Until this year, that is. This year's team had a winning season with a 5-4 record and third place in the SEC.

Individual all league SEC honors on the Defensive team went to Nate Osburn, defensive tackle, first team. Heathe Fowler, linebacker; Jason Tubberville, defensive end; and Ramon Torres, defensive tackle, made all league. Individual honors on the offensive team, went to Brian Burns, wide receiver, and Nick Pound, punter, made first team. Quarterback Jon Kuhman made second team.

Junior Heathe Fowler said, "Football is mostly like a challenge, which makes the sport fun." On the other hand "the team work" is what will make senior Nate Osburn miss playing for T.H.S.

JVs - Almost Perfect

By Mark Handy

The JVs had another great season this year. They finished with a 7-1 record, the defensive team was their strong point all year. They outscored their opponents 216-45.

The most upsetting game was the loss to Pinckney by a margin of one point, the only loss the JVs suffered during the season. The Indians scored in the first quarter but failed to get the two point conversion. That was it until the fourth quarter when Pinckney got their only touchdown of the game.

Spirited Frosh Team

By Mark Handy

The freshmen football team had a fine season. They won their first four games. But after that they did not seem to be playing up to their capabilities. The result was winning only one of their last five games. They worked hard all year during practice and in their games, though.

It was like fighting a losing battle during those last few games, some of the players said. The team decided to put that behind them and try again next year as JVs. The freshmen can't wait for next season to get back at all those teams that beat them.

Girls, District Champs

By Bill Kurutz

The girls' varsity basketball team had one of their greatest years yet. They started out the season winning their first four games then took a loss to Jackson County Western with a score of 51-49. Then they went on to a five-game winning streak only to lose two in a row. They suffered a loss to Chelsea with a score of 54-44, then the second loss to Dexter with a close score of 44-42. Then the girls went the rest of the season undefeated.

In the District Tournament opener the girls disposed of Jackson Lumen Christi 57-39 and took a 77-59 victory at the expense of Jackson Northwest to vault them into the district finals.

There they beat Chelsea by a score of 54-36. This was the first time in fifteen years that the Tecumseh girls' varsity basketball team won districts. Unfortunately, in their opening regional game against Inkster the girls lost a heartbreaker by a score of 48-53 in overtime.

Coach Ron Spagnoli commented, "This is the best team I've seen in fifteen years. The girls were excellent both offensively and defensively."

JVs Beat the Odds

By Bill Kurutz

The JV girls' basketball team had an excellent year. They started by taking first place in the Lenawee County tournament and second place in the Parma Western Invitational, and finishing 9-1 in the SEC.

"The girls had a great season. The key play to this outstanding performance was teamwork and dedication. The girls played a good season, their talent took them to a great overall record," said Coach Pat Pomy.

In the Lenawee County Tournament the girls were victorious against Onsted 30-16. They went on to beat Addison 43-33, taking first place in the tournament.

In the Parma Western Invitational the girls beat Jackson 42-4, only to lose to Parma Western 44-39. "It was the effort that the girls put in that counted in this game," said Pomy of the 2nd place finish in the Parma Western Invitational.

To top off their excellent season, the JV girls were co-champs of the S.E.C., finishing with a 14-4 record.

No Limits to Runners

In a sport considered too strenuous for the Summer Olympics, our boys' cross country team has set high standards for Indian cross country which could be impossible for any other Indian team to repeat. For the first time in Tecumseh cross country history, the boys' team went undefeated throughout the entire season. The boys were also the first team in school history not to lose a dual meet.

They won their opening meet against Hillsdale by a score of 22-36 and they never let up the pace. In the second meet, Keizo Takahashi set a new course record at Lincoln with a time of 16:42. In a dual meet with Adrian and Blissfield at Heritage Park, the boys squeaked by Adrian 28-29, and beat Blissfield 20-35. Takahashi and Lonnie Flores paced each other way ahead of the pack, placing first and second respectively. They finished 21 seconds ahead of the nearest Adrian runner.

In an important battle of S.E.C. undefeateds, the boys beat Pinckney by a score of 22-33 with sophomore Takahashi setting a course record at Pinckney's Merrill Park in a time of 17:24. To finish up the S.E.C. regular season, the Indians thrashed Dexter's Dreadnaughts by a score of 22-34. Flores and Takahashi teamed up to break another course record, finishing with times of 16:22 and 16:34 respectively.

Our boys' team achieved a third-place standing out of seventeen teams in the class 'B' region at Springport to advance to the state meet. Takahashi placed fourth in the regionals with a time of 16:59 to lead all Tecumseh runners. Flores, Adam Goodrow, Jonathan Opel, and Aaron Feldman all finished in the Indians' top five. In the state team race, the Indians finished twenty-first. Keizo Takahashi led the way with a 27th place finish.

All in all, the boys' team brought an unquestionably superb season to their new home course at Tecumseh Friends Church.

Great Expectations

By Todd Oswald

"Cross country takes dedication and commitment. It also requires stick-to-itiveness," says freshman Emily Dawson.

In the first meet of the S.E.C. schedule, the girls swept the first five places to post a 15-47 victory against Lincoln. Nicole Randolph took first with Dawson, Carrie Crumb, Heather Sodergren, and Julie Dykas rounding out the first five places.

In a tough home-opener loss against Hillsdale, Randolph established a course record on the new Tecumseh course. Later in the season, the girls destroyed Pinckney with a score of 15-50. Freshman Dawson set a new course record at Pinckney with a time of 22:52. All of the first seven places belonged to Tecumseh.

In the Gibraltar Carlson Invitational, the girls' team overcame a rain-soaked course and took third place with 80 points. Randolph took first place with a time of 19:49. In wins over Blissfield and Adrian, Randolph set a new course record at Adrian's Heritage Park with a time of 19:44.

In a meet with Milan, Randolph broke yet another record this time at Tecumseh's own course with a time of 19:27, over 30 seconds quicker than the old record. She helped the team to squeak by the Big Reds with a score of 27-28.

Against last year's state champion, Chelsea, Randolph and her teammates suffered a rare loss, 19-42. The girls finished third in the S.E.C. final standings.

Randolph placed fourth in the regionals with a time of 20:05 to advance to the state meet. There Randolph placed 9th in the individual race with a time of 20:08. The Indian girls' team narrowly missed third place in the region and a trip to the state competition. They finished five points behind number three Jackson Northwest. Dawson, Dykas, Sodergren, and Martha Flores rounded out the Indians' top five.

Tecumseh Golf 1990

Two years ago we said: "A return to the state finals [in 1989] would not be a surprise." Unfortunately, the team did not make the finals this year.

We might have - could have - predicted before this season started a return to Lansing but we didn't. Maybe we should have! At any rate, we did make another appearance, the eleventh in THS's long and distinguished golf history.

The season began in an inauspicious manner, with a ninth place finish in the season kickoff classic, the Western Tournament. Darron Edwards did well with an 80.

Our own tournament came up next and our team played poorly, finishing the furthest back that any THS team had finished since 1986. Saline won the tourney and would prove to be our area's team to beat.

All of a sudden, Saline appeared on the schedule in a match, that in some respects, set the tone for the season. We turned in a very good performance, a score which would have defeated Saline twice last year, but would this time amount to a three-shot deficit. Edwards was medalist again.

That week also marked the first appearance of THS at the Adrian Tournament. The team played poorly, a trend which fortunately began to turn around shortly after.

Monday after the Adrian Tournament, THS hosted

Chelsea and Lincoln and ripped both. Edwards and Beland co-medaled for the day. A week later at Macon (with Milan) had Chad Blaker and Mark Danley co-medaling at 38. All four players were under 40 for what would be the team's best 9-hole score for 1990.

Back to the Lenawee Country Club for the county tournament, the Indians beat Adrian on its own course, along with the rest of the county's teams. Blaker was overall medalist for the day with an 82.

Saline again! After some thought, we felt we could shoot 160 on our course and beat them. Okay with Saline, they shot 159! In a great team effort Beland, Blaker, Danley and Neitling all shot 40's. It was a tough loss but the team bounced back to sweep the rest of the regular match schedule, with one rain cancellation at Hillsdale.

The regionals were eagerly awaited, but when the scores came in, THS didn't seem to have a chance of qualifying after posting its worse 18-hole score of the season. Soon, however, it became evident that other teams were having trouble with the course also and we sneaked into the state finals.

Just getting to the state finals is a treat in itself, accomplishing a high finish would have been icing on the cake. If the team had done as well as our medalist Beland (78), we would have missed the state title by a single stroke.

In the S.E.C. meet Edwards was our medalist and second overall. He and Blaker were named all league for their overall excellence for the season. The team finished second overall again, losing only to Saline in any match.

In the final analysis, in what started out looking like a stinker, the team came on like gangbusters and had what most people would consider a pretty decent season. An overriding factor in what success this team had this year is one of balance. Besides having five players medal at different matches, the team's players' averages from first through fifth varied by only about two strokes per nine holes.

The team loses seniors Chad Blaker, Tim Brunetz, Marc Danley and John Neitling and they'll be hard to replace. In years past, we liked to say that we're not rebuilding but rather RELOADING. 1991 may be different because only Edwards and Beland have had much varsity experience. Jason Proctor, Matt Hammond, Ben Mukuensurm, Kevin Jacobs and Shawn Wise, at this point, seem to be the likely varsity candidates. Hopefully, we'll have an influx of hot-shot eighth graders coming up to challenge our returning lettermen.

Tune in next season to see what we come up with!

Boys Stroke to Victory

By Rachel Scott

The boys swim team did a great job this year. The team earned Tecumseh a prestigious name in competition. Three members of the team went to state this year. The three were Robert Moore, Scott Scheytt, and Chad Haeussler.

The swim team is a good opportunity to learn many new things. The swimmers not only learn and perfect strokes, they also learn comradery and school spirit.

Not only do the swimmers learn many new things, but they also have a lot to fun. It is not all fun though; a lot of hard work and effort goes into competitions and practices.

Lady Swimmers Go For It

By Rachel Scott

The competition in girls swimming is hard and takes a lot of work. Although this is true, many members of the team mutually agree that all the hard work is worth it.

Jenny Norton, a sophomore said, "It was a lot of work but it was definitely worth it!" Another sophomore Liz Nuzum said, "It was a million laughs and it seemed like a million miles!"

The majority of the girls give a lot of credit to the coach Mr. Reed. They commented on what a great coach he was. Sophomore Brandy Kazmierczak stated: "Mr. Reed pushed us to be the best that we could be, it was fun." Tara Turner, a sophomore, said "It was a lot of work, but it was worth it. Mr. Reed is a great coach!"

Streaky Season for Wrestlers

By Mark Handy

The 1990-1991 wrestling season got off to a bad start with a three meet losing streak to Onsted, Lincoln, and Saline. The THS grapplers got back on their feet with a double win against Clinton and Mason. The team then went on to rout league rival Pinckney by a score of 60-17. From there, they beat the Big Reds of Milan by twenty-one points. This win extended the Tribe's winning streak to four meets.

In a non-conference meet with Adrian, the Indians' win streak came to an abrupt halt with a 55-21 loss. During the last three meets, the Indians' went 1-3, with losses coming from Chelsea, and two defeats from eventual league champion Dexter.

Tino Jimenez turned in a outstanding season as a senior. Jimenez finished second in district by losing two close matches. Coach Connors said, "It was a very streaky season for Indian wrestling."

School's Top Gymnasts Compete

By Tiffany Easter

Although the ancient Greeks are famous for their athletic abilities which led to the development of gymnastics, they didn't participate in the type of gymnastics one would expect. Their main sports consisted of track and field, chariot racing, discus, and boxing.

In the late 1700's, two men led separate campaigns to promote gymnastics. German-born Friedrich Jahn promoted the idea of building strength on apparatus, such as the parallel bars and the horizontal bar. Peir Henrik Ling, born in Sweden, was more interested in the aesthetic side of the sport, preoccupied with human movement, rhythm and fluency of exercise.

These two opposite views were the subject of a long debate, but the sport of gymnastics was sufficiently established to be in the first Olympic Games at Athens in 1896, men being the sole performers. Women's team events were added for the first time in the 1928 Olympics at Amsterdam.

Since then, women's gymnastics has become a popular sport.

Our own team finished the season with a final standing of 5-4. Coach Brandi Pawlowski named Erica Miller "most improved" and gave regional qualifier Marisa Proctor the "most valuable player" title. Renee Feldman also was named MVP, qualifying for both regional and state competitions. "It was as tough or tougher than I expected," said Feldman, "if you get the chance to even go and watch, it's a good experience."

A Phenomenal Season!!

This year's varsity basketball team was undoubtedly one of the best in the school history. Once again the Tecumseh Indians walked away with the SEC and District titles with the Regional title just slipping through their fingers.

Senior Andy Poppink led the Indians in scoring while achieving the all-time career scoring record at THS at 1,033 pts. He is also the first student from THS to go to a PAC 10 school, Stanford University.

Jon Kuhman, Brandon Cox, Brian Burns, and Marc Danley also helped the Indians to an impressive 19-5 record.

Mr. Ed Oxley, the varsity team's coach said that "teamwork and good players" are what made the team as good as they were.

Our team will not be quite the same with the leaving of so many seniors but hope for the future is bright.

JVs - Determined to Win

By Todd Oswald

The JV basketball team started out the 1990-91 hoop season with a mediocre 5-5 record. They lost by only a deuce in two of those five defeats. In the second half of the season, the JV hoopsters upped their record to 6-4 with wins coming against SEC rivals Saline, Milan and Ypsi. Lincoln. During the season, the Indian offense scored an average of 59.30 points per game. The defense permitted opposing teams an average of just 51.75 points per game. They were involved in seven games that were decided by five points or less.

Coach Ron Spagnoli had this to say about his JVs: "I was very proud of this team. They started out the season weakly, but they came back to finish the season strong and competitively. All of the players had great determination."

Some of the most consistent JVs were Troy McCrate, Jason Adkisson, Chad Risner, Sam Schmidt and Brian Puffer.

Puffer, a freshman, was called up to the varsity level to help out the varsity cagers in the playoffs.

Getting It Together

By Todd Oswald

"Attitude played a key role for this freshman team," said frosh Coach McDowell.

The year started out with disappointing losses coming from Lumen Christi, Ypsi. Lincoln and Adrian. After a .500 first-half, the freshman rebounded to an undefeated second-half, beating league rivals such as Dexter, Saline, Chelsea plus a revenge-win against Ypsi. Lincoln.

The first half of the season, the young Indians went 3-6. McDowell attributed the poor first-half record to the fact that the "team was a little inexperienced on playing time. Coach Gibson and I were amazed at the amount of talent possessed by this team."

McDowell said that he couldn't remember ever being disappointed with the team's lack of willingness to play hard. "They always played hard in games because they had the desire to go out and win."

"I really couldn't single out any one person as the 'leader' of this team because the team is filled with leaders. At least ten guys can look forward to a lot of playing time next year as JVs, so long as they continue to work hard."

Serve and Volley

"We had a great season with excellent senior leadership. We won the championship in our league and won five tournaments against some of the best teams in the state."

Ted Todd
volleyball coach

By Todd Oswald

Unstoppable! No one in the S.E.C. even came close to beating the varsity volleyball squad. They blasted their way through the S.E.C. schedule with five shutouts. Fourteen times opponents were held to three or less points. In a "class" breakdown of their outstanding season, the lady Indians were 17-4-3 (class A), 27-2-3 (class B), 5-0-0 (class C), 2-0-0 (class D). What it all adds up to is a superb 51-6-6 record against some of Michigan's best volleyball teams.

Erin Chase and Andrea Marshall received the honor of being placed on the Class B All-State Second team. Teammate Kerry Jones was given an honorable mention to the all-state team.

Jones, Chase and Marshall were named to the SEC first team. Named to the SEC second team was Jill Hawley. Mary Morrison received an honorable mention.

Jones, Chase and Marshall were also named to the Michigan Volleyball Coaches Association Region Team. The trio were also picked for the Lenawee County Tournament Team.

Chase and Jones were placed on the All-Region first team by the Ann Arbor News. Andrea Marshall was picked as the lady Indians' representative on the All-Region third team.

Jones was also placed on the Class B All-State Academic Team.

A Successful Season

By Todd Oswald

This year's JV volleyball team had an excellent season. They were 8-4 in the S.E.C., but they really stood out in the five tournaments that they participated in. For all five tourneys combined, they had a record of 17-5. The tournament that they did win, however, was the Clinton Invitational.

Boys Are "On the run"

By Kristi Drogowski

"We are an inexperienced group but we should improve as the season progresses," said boys track coach Jim Kessler.

And improve they did! The THS boys track team has enjoyed a great season.

When the team first started off they weren't at their best but throughout the season there has been a dramatic change. They have come back to win against some of the best track competitors. And, they finished third in SEC.

All the members of the T.H.S. boys track team have been very competitive. They all have given their best this year, said Coach Kessler.

In addition to winning events and meets, having fun is very important in track. It also has a practical value. When athletes are enjoying themselves they're most likely to do their best.

Track and field athletes usually begin their warm-up sessions with light jogging, maybe two laps around a quarter mile track. The team practices every day from 3:30-5:00 except the days that they have a meet.

Next, performing stretching exercises is very important, focusing upon the muscles of the lower back, the calf muscles, the hamstrings, and the achilles tendons.

"We start out stretching and if I have a field event I run two practice laps," said freshman Ben Maloy.

In those final minutes before the race begins, the athletes often try to perform some ritual that will help them relax. Maybe it's just sitting calmly by themselves, visualizing what they plan to do, their strategy and form.

When the event is over, in order to avoid muscle injury, the athletes spend as much time warming down their body as they did warming up.

Attention to the basics could be one of the reasons behind the boys' success.

The girls track team has had a very successful season. They have finished third in the SEC.

The Southeastern Conference meet in May produced two league chasmpions. Amy Korte and Nicole Randolph both placed first in their events. Korte's winning heave in the shot put was 32' 5.5", and Randolph had a time of 1:00.6 in the 400 meter dash.

"Working with the girls and seeing how they improve throughout the year is the best thing about being the coach," said Jusick.

Improve is just what these athletes have done. They are enjoying a very successful season. Jusick feels that the team's best event is the 1600 meter relay.

"I'm very proud of everybody. They all work hard to do their best," said Jusick.

Countless generations have shared the running experiences putting one stride after the other to reach the finish line.

The THS girls are proving that they can keep up with the best.

Varsity Baseball Finishes Strong

By Mark Handy

Hopes were high for the 1991 Varsity baseball team. And the anticipation proved to be true. The team had a great record with 15 wins and only four losses.

Many individuals on the team had exemplary statistics including Jason Jordan, Jason Tuberville, Brian Burns, Heath Fowler, and Ryan Williams.

Burns set four new records including most career home runs with 16, a season high 36 RBIs, most career RBIs with 65, and most runs scored with 70.

"We have a lot of talent," said junior Jason Tuberville. And Coach Bob Ondrovick added, "We had a lot of fun."

Baseball is one of the most popular sports in the country, and Tecumseh High School is no exception. For years, fans have followed the team to championship seasons. So next year even more fans will go to the games and this might encourage the players to do even better than this year.

JVs Develop A Sense Of Unity

By Todd Oswald

This year's JV baseball team had a superb season. With their outstanding 24-5 record, they have accumulated the best record that a Tecumseh JV baseball team has ever had. Everyone had the same willingness to win. This helped them to accomplish the difficult task of winning the S.E.C. baseball championship.

Throughout the course of the season, many frosh players were brought up to help the team out down the stretch. Some of the JVs felt that their "jobs" were being threatened by the freshman players. Fortunately, the newly revised team was able to sort out their differences and they were able to prove themselves worthy of the S.E.C. JV baseball crown.

Frosh: A Fight for Survival

By Todd Oswald

This year's freshman hardball team struggled desperately all season to try to stay above .500. They ended up on the wrong side of the rainbow. Most of the time, the fielders would make an error at a crucial time in the game.

Team member David Steiner said, "All I'm gonna say is that the mental part of baseball is far more important than the physical."

Most of the players would tell you that they have gained valuable experience playing baseball at the high school level and are ready to move on to the "second rung" of the baseball ladder.

Seniors Spark Varsity Softball

By Laura Bishop

The Varsity Softball team had an eventful season and a good record. This year was the last for many seniors who played vital rolls on the team such as Edie Anklin, Monica Hillard, Traci Towne, Leah Dunham, and Jill Hawley. All had a well played last season.

Even though so many are leaving their is still a lot of hope for the future. Erin Schick a sophomore on the team said, "I think the team worked well together and that we have excellent coaches."

Julie Oxley said, "This year has been a joy to play with everyone. We had a pretty successful year!"

This team was one with good chemistry - from fielding and pitching, to batting and stealing. All and all this was an excellent playing softball team.

JV's: New Coach, New Season

By Laura Bishop

What a season for the JV Softball team. Along with being the first year of high school play for some it was also a year with a new coach, Greg Lewis.

It was an exciting season, Lewis said, "The girls learned a lot this year about competing in the SEC. By using their year of experience to improve on their weaknesses and using their given talent, they should be able to perform at a much higher level next year. This is a good group of girls."

Along with having a terrific season and gaining good experience for their varsity years, they learned what softball is all about.

Team manager Brandy Kazmierczak said, "The team's performance was excellent. I enjoyed very much being a part of the team."

GO, FIGHT, WIN!

By Laura Bishop

Once again the varsity cheerleaders have had another year of supporting our teams. Their season starts with tryouts in April. Once the cheerleading squad has been selected, the girls practice 2-4 hours a week during the summer. Then camp begins.

This year the cheerleaders attended camp at U of M. There they learned cheers, sidelines, and dances. The cheerleaders also competed in optional home PomPon competition. The girls had to create their own dance, bring it to camp, and have it evaluated. The squad won first runner up and a superior gold ribbon for their routine.

Each night they were evaluated and at the end of the week they ended up with three superior ribbons. The squad also won first place in the sideline division cheer competition.

The cheerleaders have to be dedicated to their sport. During football season they practice two hours a week. Then the squad has a two week break between football and basketball season. They resume practice for four hours before basketball and once it starts they practice for two hours a week. In the end their hard work and practice really pays off, with the gratitude and recognition given by the fans and teams.

CROWD SUPPORT

By Erin E. Hug

It's football season... the great American game of finesse, strength and stamina. The field is vast; the players are many. The stands are high and wide. As cheerleaders, it is your job to unite the spectators and players—to boost the energy and morale of all present and to cheer your school to victory.

It is not an easy job yet it is one well worth your while. Joining the fans and the team creates a rush of incredible school spirit and community pride. So where do you begin? Follow these 10 tips and you can have fabulous football fun.

Tip #1

Find a few crazy fans that know your plans to increase school spirit and that are willing to help you.

Tip #2

Designate a certain "student section" in your stands where students can sit together. Rope off this section and decorate it with streamers and signs. Give your student section a name like "The Dog Pound," fans of the Cleveland Browns. (This is where you should cheer.) Encourage all students to sit there and make it known throughout your school by announcing at pep rallies and by posting signs.

Tip #3

Schedule different outfits to be worn at home games. (It may take a while for students to catch on to these "dress up" nights but don't get discouraged.) Many students fear dressing up at the risk of being uncool or different. Carefully choose outfits with this in mind. Until it does catch on, use basic themes such as "college t-shirt," "rock t-shirts," or "all-red" night as opposed to "toga" night which may be intimidating for many students. Post the themes in several places around the school and have it announced over your P.A. system. The more people that know about it, the more likely they'll dress up.

Tip #4

Pass out signs to students in the crowd to hold up during the game. Effective signs are those that have the words to your cheers on them, those with your school mascot and name, and signs dealing with the game such as "TOUCHDOWN," or "DEFENSE." Make these signs of varying sizes and distribute them to as many people as possible.

Tips For Fabulous Football Fun

1. Gain support from crazy fans
2. Designate a student section
3. Create game themes and dress accordingly
4. Use signs
5. Sell school spirit items
6. Utilize local companies for promotional hand-outs
7. Hold pep rallies
8. Coordinate with your marching band
9. Use cheers and chants that are easy for your crowd to yell
10. Coordinate your ideas with the athletic department and administration

Tip #5

Sell paraphernalia with your school name and logo. Sell towels, small megaphones, pins, t-shirts, sweat-shirts, baseball caps, mugs, pens, teddy bears and cushions. All of these things excite people. They're spirit creators and will put some extra money into your treasury.

Tip #6

Find a local company to donate small nerf-like or rubber footballs. These balls are inexpensive and excellent advertising for their company. The company's name and logo can be printed directly on the balls along with your school name and mascot. Throwing these balls into the crowd during pre-game or half-time will cause the crowd to go wild! Now that's something that both cheerleaders and players enjoy.

Tip #7

Pep rallies will increase a general interest in football throughout your school. Plan pep rallies that center around cheering for the football team. Have the team run passing and tackling drills in full uniform to music. It will excite the crowd and the players. Follow up with chants and cheers that involve the entire student body. A good one to do is a four word phrase where each class yells one word. For example, "GO DETROIT BEAT CINCINNATI." If the freshmen start with "GO," the seniors can finish with "CINCINNATI."

Tip #8

If you have a marching band that plays during home games, work with them! Ask them to play hip songs with a good beat and dance! Organized line dances work well. The crowd will enjoy watching you rap on the field and they will jam to the music themselves. If you do not have a marching band, or they will not play MC Hammer, bring your own jam box and play MC on tape.

Tip #9

Use cheers and sidelines that the crowd can learn and will yell. Print copies of your cheers, number them, and pass them out to the crowd. Then tell the crowd you are doing cheer #1. Watch them follow along!

Tip #10

Your job will be much easier if your football coach, athletic director and administrators are behind you. Don't leave these people in the dark. Let them in on your plans. Remember, they make the final decisions on what can and cannot be done at your school.

Note: These 10 tips do not guarantee success. They are simply steps to take in creating awesome school spirit and thrilling football games. Try as many as you like and you should see results. Good luck and get fired up!

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders have won many awards at Universal Cheerleading Association Camp this year. They won 1st place in the Sideline Composition and they won the Spirit Stick.

Keely Sopko said, "I like the hard work and dedication." Sopko plans to try out for the Varsity squad but doesn't know about trying out for cheerleading in college. "It depends on what college I go to," she said.

"I think the J.V. Cheerleaders have improved greatly even though we have four new cheerleaders," sophomore Nancy Snyder said.

"This year's Junior Varsity Cheerleading squad has broken down the stereotypical image of today's cheerleaders, replacing it with a new image of respect," agreed Aimee Bone and Sopko.

Cheerleading has always been a sport for young energetic girls. Some pursue a career in cheerleading but all are there to have fun.

Cheerleading was invented to stimulate school spirit. The Freshman Cheerleaders have certainly stimulated the crowd at the frosh football and basketball games.

"Our practices are on Mondays after school until 5:00 p.m. We make signs and get ready for the pep rallies. We also get ready for the games and practice on the latest moves," said Nissa Sanchez.

Uniforms were designed to give a unifying appearance to the squad. The Frosh Cheerleaders' uniforms are basic black and orange but are very different from the Junior Varsity and Varsity Cheerleaders' uniforms.

They have done well as Freshman Cheerleaders!

That was then.....this is now

By Terri Balog

Can you think of all the events of major importance that occurred this past year? It's hard to think of all of them. That's what these next few pages are here for, to inform you.

Our school has geared itself toward informing our student body better than ever before. Channel 1 is one of the steps taken. This news channel gives everyone a chance to take in the current events happening around them. Also, since almost three fourths of the school purchases a year-book, we put this important information in a book that almost everyone reads.

A lot of these pictures are performers only because it is the main entertainment of many high school students. Music has grown to become a very controversial issue. Many opinions differ about male and female performers, such as Madonna with her lyrics and videos. Another group that's questionable, 2 Live Crew, has been arrested in Florida for obscene and vulgar lyrics. After listeners and radio stations banned their music, they released a song entitled "Banned in the U.S.A."

These events are our past and they affect our future. What happens now may affect us later. That's why we all need news. To keep us up-to-date on important issues as these. The world events pages are for your benefit. Take time to look over these next couple of pages, you may find out something you once did not know!

En Vogue, these four super stars (above) hit the pop charts earlier last year, and nothing seems to stop this fabulous quartet from hitting number one!

Lead singer of 2 Live Crew (near right) continues to make live performances even though the energetic group was banned late in 1990 for obscene and vulgar lyrics.

Past, Present, and Future

When you're hot, you're hot, and the golden girl Madonna (right) has been hot for a long time. The actress, singer and "Material Girl" has had hit after hit on the charts, with the most recent controversial "Justify My Love". Here she is performing on the Blonde Ambition Tour, "Hanky Panky".

Jim Henson (below) was a puppeteer with an enormous following. On May 16, 1990, at the age of 53, he died from a severe case of pneumonia. During his career, he created an endearing menagerie of creatures and characters of timeless appeal.

After months of debate and years of struggle, East Germany and West Germany (above) became the Federal Republic of Germany on October 3, 1990.

Bell Biv DeVoe (top right) rolled onto the music scene this past year in a big way. Their album "Poison" hit the charts near the top and hasn't moved from there since, and their single "Do Me!" is a bestseller.

Public Enemy (bottom right) is one of the nation's most popular and controversial rap groups. They do their own music and, earlier this year, they were accused of being anti-semitic. Flavor Flav is pictured here with Matsuda Seiko, one of the hottest Japanese entertainers.

. . . And so it goes

Another year gone by, and edition number 72 can be shelved to be brought out for great memories in the future. It's almost safe to say that this is an incomparable book because it was composed by two staffs. We topped out on our ad sales at $4,000+ and book sales at 485.

Being in my third year of yearbook, I had the challenge of working with two fully equipped, well organized staffs. The book still took as long as usual but the ideas from both classes almost jump out at you when you open to the first sets of pages! This procedure worked very well this year, and I hope that it continues to progress.

A big thanks must go to Judy Allen, our sales representative, for quick 'pit stops' she made to help us with a problem or just pat us on the back for our everyday efforts. Also, for the 'sweet tooth' Judy shared with us, we all have one now!

To you seniors, I hope this was well worth the summer's wait. We were sure that it would be. The theme 'Good Times, Good Friends' brought together the Kodak moments and copy in this book. Mrs. Lancaster led us through thick and thin, always coming out in the end with a smile and a job worth bragging about.
